| Who Should
File Claim | <ul style="list-style-type: none">● This claim form should be completed and filed by the widow or widower for self and surviving children. If there is no surviving widow or widower, the children's guardian completes the claim. |
| When Should
Claim Be Filed | <ul style="list-style-type: none">● Claim must be filed within three years following date of death, unless the decedent's immediate superior had actual knowledge of an on-the-job injury or death within 30 days; or written notice of the injury or death was given within 30 days. The timely filing of a disability claim will satisfy the time requirements for a death claim based on the same injury. |
| What Documents
Are Required | <ul style="list-style-type: none">● The marriage certificate(s) for a widow or widower; death certificate for decedent if not previously submitted; birth certificate or adoption documents for each child. Also, if appropriate, Letter of Guardianship. If either the decedent or the surviving spouse was previously married, legal documents showing dissolution of such prior marriage(s). Copies of certificates or documents are acceptable only if they are certified by the person having official custody of such records. They should then be attached to the claim form when it is filed. |
| How to
Complete Claim | <ul style="list-style-type: none">● All items should be completed. If an item is not applicable, indicate by showing "NA". Note that the form requests information about several different categories of persons, i.e., items 1-7 make inquiry about the decedent; 8-13 the surviving widow or widower; 14-14a, surviving children; and 15, the children's guardian. The attending physician's report on the reverse of the claim must also be completed before the form is submitted to the OWCP. |
| Funeral/Burial
Allowance | <ul style="list-style-type: none">● Submit original itemized funeral and burial bills. If paid, so indicate and give name and address of person making payment. If an Administrator or Executor has been appointed, give such person's name and address and attach a copy of the appointment document. |

See the following page for a definition of dependents and a description of benefits.

DEATH BENEFITS FOR SURVIVING WIDOW, WIDOWER AND/OR CHILDREN UNDER THE FEDERAL EMPLOYEES' COMPENSATION ACT (FECA)

| Widow or Widower | <ul style="list-style-type: none">● To qualify for benefits, a widow or widower must have been living with the employee or separated for reasonable cause prior to the time of death. Payments continue for life or until remarriage. Upon remarriage, a widow or widower will receive a lump sum equal to 24 times his or her monthly compensation. If the remarriage occurs at age 60 or later, no lump sum is paid. Instead, payments continue for life. |
| Children | <ul style="list-style-type: none">● Eligible children include natural, adopted, step and posthumous children unmarried and under 18 years of age. Payments continue beyond 18 if the child is incapable of self-support because of mental or physical incapacity. Payments also continue on behalf of children over 18 if they are full-time students. Student benefits terminate on: marriage, completion of four years of education beyond high school level, or at age 23, whichever occurs first. |
| Compensation Rates | <ul style="list-style-type: none">● For widows or widowers - 50% of the employee's monthly pay if there are no surviving eligible children - 45% if there are eligible children.

Children - 15% each, not to exceed a total of 30%, shared equally if there is a widow or widower; if there is no widow or widower, 40% for one child plus 15% for each additional child, shared equally. Monthly payments for all beneficiaries cannot exceed 75% of the employee's monthly pay rate, or 75% of the top step of GS-15 of the General Schedule. |
| Direct Deposit Information | <ul style="list-style-type: none">● The Department of Treasury requires all Federal payments be made by electronic funds transfer (EFT), also called Direct Deposit. You may submit a completed SF-1199A, Direct Deposit Sign Up, or complete the information in items 23 through 25 of this form. If you do not have a bank account, you may be required to receive your payment through Direct Express Debit MasterCard. To request information on the Direct Express Debit MasterCard, go to www.usdirectexpress.com or call 1-800-333-1795. If directed to enroll in the Program, you may contact for the Department of Treasury at 1-888-224-2950 to address any questions or concerns you may have, as well as apply for a waiver from the process. NOTE: payments to residents of foreign countries are exempt from the Treasury requirement. |
| Social Security Benefits | <ul style="list-style-type: none">● If the employee was covered under the Federal Employees' Retirement System (FERS), 5 USC 8116(d)(2) requires that Social Security benefits payable to beneficiaries, which are attributable to the deceased employee's Federal Service, are deducted from the beneficiary's compensation entitlement. |
| Funeral/Burial Allowance | <ul style="list-style-type: none">● Funeral and burial expenses up to a maximum of $800 may be paid. Amount paid by the VA will be deducted. If death occurs away from the employee's duty station, transportation costs may be paid to return the deceased employee to his home or last place of residence. In addition to any funeral or burial expenses, a sum of $200 may be paid for reimbursement of the costs of termination of the decedent's status as an employee of the United States. |
| Third Party Action | <ul style="list-style-type: none">● If the injury or death results from activity of a person or party other than the Federal Government, a "third party action" or lawsuit may be indicated. In such instances the Department of Labor will provide further instructions. |

If additional information is needed, it may be obtained from the Office of Workers' Compensation Programs.

Privacy Act Notice

In accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended (5 U.S.C. 552a), you are hereby notified that: (1) The Federal Employees' Compensation Act, as amended and extended (5 U.S.C. 8101, et seq.) (FECA) is administered by the Office of Worker' Compensation programs of the U.S. Department of Labor, which receives and maintains personal information on claimants and their immediate families. (2) Information which the Office has will be used to determine eligibility for and the amount of benefits payable under the FECA, and may be verified through computer matches or other appropriate means. (3) Information may be given to the Federal agency which employed the claimant at the time of injury in order to verify statements made, answer questions concerning the status of the claim, verify billing, and to consider issues relating to retention, rehire, or other relevant matters. (4) information may also be given to other Federal agencies, other government entities, and to private-sector agencies and/or employers as part of rehabilitative and other return-to-work programs and services. (5) Information may be disclosed to physicians and other health care providers for use in providing treatment or medical/vocational rehabilitation, making evaluations for the Office, and for other purposes related to the medical management of the claim. (6) Information may be given to Federal, state and local agencies for law enforcement purposes, to obtain information relevant to a decision under the FECA, to determine whether benefits are being paid properly, including whether prohibited dual payments are being made, and, where appropriate, to pursue salary/administrative offset and debt collection actions required or permitted by the FECA and/or the Debt Collection Act. (7) Disclosure of the claimant's social security number (SSN) or tax identifying number (TIN) on this form is mandatory. The SSN and/or TIN, and other information maintained by the Office, may be used for identification, to support debt collection efforts carried on by the Federal government, and for other purposes required or authorized by law. (8) Failure to disclose all requested information may delay the processing of the claim or the payment of benefits, or may result in an unfavorable decision or reduced level of benefits.

Note: This notice applies to all forms requesting information that you might receive from the Office in connection with the processing and adjudication of the claim you filled under the FECA.

Accommodation Statement

If you have a substantially limiting physical or mental impairment, Federal disability nondiscrimination law gives you the right to receive help from OWCP in the form of communication assistance, accommodation and modification to aid you in the claims process. For example, we will provide you with copies of documents in alternate formats, communication services such as sign language interpretation, or other kinds of adjustments or changes to account for the limitations of your disability. Please contact our office or your claims examiner to ask about this assistance.
