Instructions: If work has begun on the project, the small business must complete this form and submit it to the surety agent of choice with the application. The completed form must include the signatures of the Principal and Oblige...

When the work under a contract has actually begun, an SBA official having delegated authority to approve the bond in question (see 13 CFR part 101), may nevertheless guarantee a bond or bonds pursuant to Part 115 of 13 CFR, upon receipt, satisfactory to SBA, of all the items below.

- 1. Evidence (certified copy of contract or sworn affidavit) from Principal that the surety bond requirement was contained in the original job contract, or documentation, satisfactory to SBA, as to why a surety bond was not previously secured and is now being required is attached hereto.
2. In the spaces below the Principal has certified that all suppliers and subcontractors are paid to date. If additional spaces are needed attach hereto. A waiver of lien from each, or an explanation satisfactory to SBA why such certification cannot be produced, is attached hereto.

Table with 4 columns: Suppliers, Bill to date, Paid to date, Waiver of Lien Attached hereto. Contains 5 rows for suppliers and 5 rows for subcontractors.

3. Certifications by Principal and Oblige.

By signing below, I certify on behalf of the Principal or Oblige that all information provided in connection with the application for a surety bond guaranty from SBA is true, correct and complete to the best of my knowledge. I understand that knowingly making a false statement is a violation of Federal law and could result in criminal prosecution or civil penalties under 18 U.S.C. §§ 287, 371, 1001, 15 U.S.C. § 645, or 31 U.S.C. § 3729. The Principal also hereby certifies that all taxes and labor costs in connection with this job are current. The Oblige also hereby certifies that all payments due the Principal under the contract to present status have been made and that the job has been satisfactorily completed to present status. Please provide reason why bond was not required prior to job starting.
