

Data Elements for
Requirements for Importers of Nonhuman Primates
Recordkeeping: Notification

- A. Recordkeeping: Notification of Arriving Shipments
1. The importer's name and address;
  2. Number and species of NHPs being imported;
  3. Description of crates;
  4. Means of individually identifying NHPs;
  5. Origin of NHPs, including the country, the exporter, and the exporter's address;
  6. Intended use of NHPs;
  7. Specific itinerary with names, dates, flights, times, airports, sea ports, and responsible parties to contact at every step of travel, including all ground transportation;
  8. Port of entry;
  9. If arriving by flight, the name of the airline and its flight number;
  10. If arriving by vehicle, the name of the vehicle's owner and its license plate number;
  11. If arriving by ship, the name of the ship and its vessel number;
  12. Name and address of the destination quarantine facility;
  13. Name, address, and contact information for shipper, if other than the importer;
  14. If applicable, name, address, and contact information for broker in the United States;
  15. Name, address, and contact information for the person(s) responsible for off-loading NHPs in the United States;
  16. Name, address, and contact information for any party responsible for ground transportation from port of entry to quarantine facility;
  17. Expected quarantine facility, if different from the importer;
  18. Master air waybill number for shipment;
  19. CITES permit number and expiration date.
  20. Post arrival: any deaths during shipping, including cause of death