--	------------------------------

WHY WE ARE SENDING YOU THE ENCLOSED FORM

We must regularly review your claim for Special Veterans Benefits (SVB) to determine your continuing entitlement and correct payment amount.

WHAT YOU MUST DO

You must complete the enclosed form “Statement for Determining Continuing Entitlement for Special Veterans Benefits (SVB)” and return it to us. If you are the beneficiary’s representative payee, please answer according to how the questions pertain to the beneficiary.

What Your Representative Payee Must Do

If you have a representative payee, the payee must complete the enclosed form SSA-2010 Statement for Determining Continuing entitlement for Special Veterans Benefits (SVB), on your behalf. The payee must answer according to how the questions apply to you and return the form to SSA.

NOTE: A representative payee is the person, agency, organization, or institution selected by SSA to receive and manage benefits on behalf of an incapable beneficiary.

HOW TO COMPLETE THE ENCLOSED FORM

- Check the name and address above. If the information is not correct, write the correct information at the end of the form in the spaces labeled:
 - Signature (Please print your name above your signature),
 - Mailing Address,
 - City, State, Country, and
 - Postal Code
- Answer all questions on the form.
- Sign your name in the space marked “Signature of Beneficiary or Representative Payee.”

WHEN TO RETURN THE FORM

You must complete the form, sign it, and send it with any evidence to us within 30 days from the date you receive this form. We have enclosed an envelope for your convenience.

WHERE TO RETURN THE FORM

Return the completed and signed and any evidence to the Social Security office listed in the box labeled "Return the attached form to:" on the front page of this letter.

WHAT WILL HAPPEN IF WE DO NOT HEAR FROM YOU

If we do not hear from you, your benefits will stop. We will send you a letter to notify you that we are suspending your benefits. The letter will explain our action and what you need to do if you disagree with our action.

WHAT YOU NEED TO REPORT

You must report to us any change that affects your Special Veterans Benefits. The following is a list of changes that must be reported:

- You change your mailing address or residence.
- You return to or visit the United States for a calendar month or longer.
- You become unable to manage your benefits.
- You have been deported or removed from the United States.
- You have an unsatisfied warrant for your arrest for a felony crime in the United States, or in U.S. jurisdictions that do not define crimes as felonies, for a crime that is punishable by death or imprisonment for a term exceeding one year.
- You are in violation of a condition of probation or parole.
- You receive an increase or decrease in a pension, annuity or other recurring payment. Some examples of payments are retirement, worker's compensation, veteran's benefits, or disability benefits.
- You move to another country.
- Your family, representative payee or other knowledgeable person must notify us if you die.

You need to report a change the month in which the change occurred in order to prevent a possible overpayment or penalty.
