

SUPPORTING STATEMENT (Form 5227)

1. CIRCUMSTANCES NECESSITATING COLLECTION OF INFORMATION

IRC Section 6012 requires every trust having gross income of $600 or more, regardless of the amount of taxable income for the tax year, to file an income tax return.

Section 4947(a)(2) provides that split-interest trusts (i.e. trusts that are not exempt from tax and have an unexpired interest to be distributed to a charitable organization) be treated as if they were a private foundation and therefore subject to certain excise taxes under Chapter 42.

Income Tax Regulations section 53.6011-1(e) requires every trust described in section 4947(a)(2) that is subject to any of the provisions of Chapter 42, as if it were a private foundation, to file an annual return on Form 5227.

Section 664 establishes criteria for charitable remainder trusts to be exempt from tax, and the character of the distributions in the hands of the beneficiary.

Section 645 requires all trusts, other than one that is exempt from tax under section 501(a) or a trust described in section 4947(a)(1), to have the calendar year as a tax year.

2. USE OF DATA

The IRS uses Form 5227 to verify that the beneficiaries of a split-interest trust include the correct amount and type of income in their tax returns. Form 5227 is also used to verify whether the trust owes any unrelated business income tax or private foundation excise taxes.

3. USE OF IMPROVED INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY TO REDUCE BURDEN

Form 5227 cannot be filed electronically, since its relatively low volume does not justify the cost electronic enabling.

4. EFFORTS TO IDENTIFY DUPLICATION

We have attempted to eliminate duplication within the agency wherever possible.

Periodic meetings are held between IRS personnel and representatives of the American Bar Association, the National Society of Public Accountants, the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, and other professional groups to discuss tax law and tax forms. During these meetings, there is an opportunity for those attending to make comments regarding Form 5227.

In response to the Federal Register Notice dated October 11, 2012 (77 FR 61833), we received no comments during the comment period regarding Form 5227.

13. ESTIMATED TOTAL ANNUAL COST BURDEN TO RESPONDENTS

As suggested by OMB, our Federal Register Notice dated October 11, 2012, requested public comments on estimates of cost burden that are not captured in the estimates of burden hours, i.e., estimates of capital or start-up costs and costs of operation, maintenance, and purchase of services to provide information. However, we did not receive any responses from taxpayers on this subject. As a result, estimates of these cost burdens are not available at this time.
