Legal Terms and Conditions

1. Section 7213 of the IRC: makes unauthorized disclosure of a return or return information a felony punishable by a fine not to exceed $5,000 or imprisonment of not more than 5 years, or both, together with the costs of prosecution. Section 7213A makes unauthorized inspection of a return or return information punishable by a fine up to $1,000, or imprisonment of not more than one year, or both, together with the costs of prosecution. Section 7431 makes persons who knowingly or negligently make an unauthorized disclosure of a return or return information liable for civil damages.

2. Work Delays and Errors: Although the IRS will make every reasonable effort to avoid delays and errors in the performance of this agreement, the IRS is not responsible for the Buyer's costs incurred due to any such delays or errors. The Buyer must pay for the cost of data recomputations or corrections.

3. Data Recordkeeping: The IRS reserves the right to use a copy of all data provided under this agreement.

4. Cancellations: Either the Buyer or the IRS (Seller) may cancel this agreement by giving written notice to the other party 30 days before cancellation. Payment to the IRS shall include actual costs incurred through the cancellation date, plus any termination costs. The IRS will exercise due diligence to prevent incurring costs after the cancellation date. However, the Buyer shall also reimburse the IRS for unavoidable commitments up to the date the agreement would have expired. When an accepted order is cancelled by the Buyer, the Seller is authorized to collect actual costs incurred through the cancellation date, plus any termination costs.

5. Dispute Resolution: Disputes and major differences between non-federal entities and the IRS shall be resolved in a similar manner to the business rules set out in the Treasury Financial Manual, Volume 1, Bulletin No. 2011-04, Intragovernmental Business Rules, dated November 8, 2010. See also: <http://fms.treas.gov/tfm/vol1/11-04.pdf>.

6. Agreement Reference: All communications between parties must refer to the Agreement by the "Project Agreement Number" (e.g. RA20XXBXXX).

Additional Clauses

1. The Buyer is acquiring these data to be used for research, analysis and consulting. No attempt will be made to identify any individuals on the file.

2. The data are intended to be used for research, analysis and consulting at Buyer's organization only.

3. The Buyer agrees not to provide any of these data to anyone outside of the Buyer's organization. Those who wish to have these data will be advised to acquire it from the IRS. The prohibition on distribution of copies of this data file does not expire with this agreement. This prohibition does not preclude the presentation of summary tabulations or other research results based on this data.

4. All Buyer's consulting or advertising material for services or products based primarily on the data provided by the IRS in the Public Use Tax File must include the following statement. The statement is "The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) does not endorse or verify the accuracy of products or services provided by this company. No individual taxpayer data has been provided to this company by the IRS." The statement must be listed in all advertising, solicitation and informational materials in bold typeface and font size no smaller than the body of text in the material.

5. The rights of each party under this Agreement are personal to that party and may not be assigned or transferred to any other person, firm, corporation, or other entity without the prior, express, and written consent of the other party.

6. This Agreement shall constitute the entire agreement between the Buyer and IRS and any prior understanding or representation of any kind preceding the date of this Agreement shall not be binding upon either party except to the extent incorporated in this Agreement.

7. Any modification of this Agreement or additional obligation assumed by either party in connection with this Agreement shall be binding only if placed in writing and signed by each party or an authorized representative of each party.

8. The IRS will not provide the files until the Buyer's TIN/SSN clears.

9. The IRS reserves the right to cancel this agreement if the Buyer has previously or as a result of this agreement implied in advertising or other communications that it has direct access to individualized taxpayer returns or that it has privileged access to IRS data.
