

School Dismissal Monitoring System Reporting Form

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and the U.S. Department of Education have established School Dismissal Monitoring System to report on school or school district dismissals in the United States. Your assistance in reporting known school dismissals is very important.

Note:

1. For district-wide dismissals, only provide the name of the school district. It is not necessary to list all the individual schools in the school district.
2. For a single school dismissal, provide name of the individual school.
3. For multiple school dismissals (but not district-wide), complete a separate form for each school.
