

Attachment L
Draft CV Checklist

I have discussed the following with the patient:

	Item
<input type="checkbox"/>	The possible or likely nature of the illness or disease;
<input type="checkbox"/>	The degree of uncertainty of any diagnosis arrived at
<input type="checkbox"/>	Other options for investigation, diagnosis and treatment
<input type="checkbox"/>	The proposed approach to investigation, diagnosis and treatment <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• What the proposed approach entails</li> <li>• The expected benefits</li> <li>• Common side effects</li> <li>• Material risks of any intervention</li> <li>• Whether the intervention is conventional or experimental</li> <li>• Who will undertake the intervention</li> </ul>
<input type="checkbox"/>	Other options for investigation, diagnosis and treatment
<input type="checkbox"/>	The degree of uncertainty about the therapeutic outcome
<input type="checkbox"/>	The likely consequences of choosing or not choosing the proposed diagnostic procedure or treatment, or of not having any procedure or treatment at all
<input type="checkbox"/>	Any significant long term physical, emotional, mental, social, sexual, or other outcome which may be associated with a proposed intervention
<input type="checkbox"/>	The time involved in treatment and recovery
<input type="checkbox"/>	Explained how treatment choice could affect a patient's finances. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Total costs of care</li> <li>• Out of pocket costs.</li> <li>• Costs of all medications</li> <li>• Medication costs unlikely to be covered by insurance</li> <li>• Costs of medical treatment (excluding medication treatments) options</li> <li>• Costs of medical treatments (excluding medication treatments) unlikely to be covered by insurance</li> <li>• Different costs based on location of treatment (nursing home, home, hospital)</li> <li>• End of life care costs</li> </ul>
<input type="checkbox"/>	Whether the benefits of a given investigation/treatment/therapy merit the cost
<input type="checkbox"/>	Provided the patient a list of financial resources (if necessary)
<input type="checkbox"/>	Asked the patient about their concerns and preferences
<input type="checkbox"/>	Confirmed the patient's understanding of the diagnosis and treatment