Submission of false information on the institution's application, including but not limited to a determination that the institution has concealed a conviction for any activity that occurred during the past seven years and that indicates a lack of business integrity. A lack of business integrity includes fraud, antitrust violations, embezzlement, theft, forgery, bribery, falsification or destruction of records, making false statements, receiving stolen property, making false claims, obstruction of justice, or any other activity indicating a lack of business integrity as defined by the State agency

Failure by a sponsoring organization to properly train or monitor sponsored facilities in accordance with §226.16(d)

Failure to properly implement and administer the day care home termination and administrative review provisions set forth at paragraph §226.6(l) and §226.16(l)

Failure to return to the State agency any advance payments that exceeded the amount earned for serving eligible meals, or failure to return disallowed start-up or expansion payments

Failure to adjust meal orders to conform to variations in the number of participants

Conviction of the institution or any of its principals for any activity that occurred during the past seven years and that indicates a lack of business integrity. A lack of business integrity includes fraud, antitrust violations, embezzlement, theft, forgery, bribery, falsification or destruction of records, making false statements, receiving stolen property, making false claims, obstruction of justice, or any other activity indicating a lack of business integrity as defined by the State agency

Failure of a sponsoring organization to disburse payments to its facilities in accordance with the regulations at §226.16(g) and (h) or in accordance with its management plan

Claiming reimbursement for meals served by a for-profit child care center or a for-profit outside-school-hours care center during a calendar month in which less than 25 percent of the children in care (enrolled or licensed capacity, whichever is less) were eligible for free or reduced-price meals or were title XX beneficiaries

Use of day care home funds by a sponsoring organization to pay for the sponsoring organization's administrative expenses

Failure to operate the Program in conformance with the performance standards set forth in paragraphs (b)(1)(xxvii) and (b)(2)(vii) of §226.6

The fact the institution or any of the institution's principals have been declared ineligible for any other publicly funded program by reason of violating that program's requirements. However, this prohibition does not apply if the institution or the principal has been fully reinstated in, or is now eligible to participate in, that program, including the payment of any debts owed

Failure by a sponsoring organization of day care homes to properly classify day care homes as tier I or tier II in accordance with §226.15(f)

Failure to perform any of the other financial and administrative responsibilities required by §226.6

Permitting an individual who is on the National disqualified list to serve in a principal capacity with the institution or, if a sponsoring organization, permitting such an individual to serve as a principal in a sponsored center or as a day care home

Failure to maintain adequate records

Claiming reimbursement for meals not served to participants

Claiming reimbursement for a significant number of meals that do not meet Program requirements

Claiming reimbursement for meals served by a for-profit adult day care center during a calendar month in which less than 25 percent of its enrolled adult participants were title XIX or title XX beneficiaries

Use of a food service management company that is in violation of health codes

Any other action affecting the institution's ability to administer the Program in accordance with Program requirements
