

The nonsubstantive change consists of a redesign of the CMS-179 Transmittal and Notice form into a fillable form. States will be allowed to use this revised e-version when submitting a change to their State plan. This change does not revise any burden estimates.