INTRODUCTION AND PURPOSE OF STUDY

The U. S. Department of Health and Human Services has hired Westat, a research company, to study the RISE program, a new local program working with the Los Angeles County Department of Children and Family Services (DCFS). The goal of the LAGLC initiative, RISE (Recognize, Intervene, Support, Empower), is to reduce the number of lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and questioning (LGBTQ) children and youth in long-term foster care in Los Angeles County. RISE is a program supported by the Permanency Innovations Initiative (PII), a federal initiative that seeks to build the evidence base for innovative interventions to enhance well-being and improve permanency outcomes for children who are in or at risk for long-term foster care.

One part of the study will help us learn which services help children stay out of foster care or leave foster care sooner. Another part of the study involves examining ways organizations can better support and serve LGBTQ children through a staff survey. We are asking for your help with this latter part of the study.

PROCEDURES

We invite you to participate in a voluntary anonymous survey. The survey asks about your views and experiences with LGBTQ clients and the availability of agency resources to help you work with this population. The survey will take no more than 15 minutes to complete.

This is the first of two surveys that we will ask you to complete. In three months, a Westat researcher will return to your organization to ask you to participate in a similar survey.

RISKS

We do not expect any risks to you in participating in the survey. You can skip questions that you do not want to answer.

BENEFITS

There are no direct benefits to you. However, you will help your organization and others come up with better ways to serve families and children.

PARTICIPANT AND DATA PRIVACY

Your survey responses will be anonymous and identifiable only by a unique study identification number. We will keep your information private. We will use your information for research purposes only. We will not include information that identifies you in any reports we write.

To help us protect your information, we received a Certificate of Confidentiality from the U. S. Department of Health and Human Services. With this Certificate, no one can force us to share information that could identify you, even in any court or legal proceeding, under a court order or subpoena.
