The Department of Justice is committed to promoting employment opportunities for qualified individuals with disabilities, including the targeted disabilities listed below. As part of this commitment, from time to time the Department develops specific initiatives designed to increase the hiring of qualified individuals with targeted disabilities. If you are interested in being considered for hiring under such an initiative, should one be in place while your application is active, please indicate your interest and consent below. If you do not identify your disability status at this time, you may do so at any time during the hiring or employment process; however, you will not be able to amend your HP/SLIP application once you have submitted it. Disclosure of disability status below will be treated as confidential and shared only with DOJ officials involved in the hiring process. Disability disclosures will not be reflected on your application and your status will not be disclosed as part of the standard review and selection process.

- I have a targeted disability and am interested in being considered for the HP/SLIP under any DOJ initiative designed to promote the hiring of qualified individuals with targeted disabilities. I consent to the disclosure of the fact that I have identified myself as an individual with a targeted disability, along with my name, contact information, and other information provided in this application to DOJ officials involved in the hiring process. I understand that if I am contacted pursuant to a specific initiative, I will be asked to provide the documentation described in 5 C.F.R. §§ 213.3102(u)(2)(ii) and (u)(iii).
