

Information & Instructions

Click the menu items and fill in the information as indicated. Save the information before moving to another menu item. Ensure your application is complete before you certify and submit it. Incomplete applications will be disqualified.

You are required to certify that the information in your application is true and complete. False or misleading information is grounds for disqualification.

You may not make substantive changes after submitting your application. Prior to submission, you may enter the application and update/change information at your discretion.

Complete the sections in the order listed. This is a unified application for two separate hiring Programs. The information you enter regarding your law school status, legal education, and post-law school activities will route you to the Program for which you are currently eligible on the "Components/Offices of Interest" section. You cannot apply to both Programs simultaneously. HP applicants who accept a judicial clerkship after submitting an application may transfer their applications to the SLIP for a period of approximately one month after the deadline.

The Attorney General's Honors Program (HP) is the Department's recruitment program for entry-level attorneys. Click here for eligibility information.

The Summer Law Intern Program (SLIP) is the Department's recruitment program for compensated interns. Click here for eligibility information.

To confirm you are applying to the correct Program, check the heading of the "Components/Offices of Interest" section. If the incorrect Program is listed, review the information you entered about your law school status, legal education, and post-law school activities for accuracy, particularly dates. If the information on those screens is correct, review the eligibility information for the Programs to determine whether you qualify.

WE ARE SORRY, BUT WE DO NOT ACCEPT:

- * Applications submitted after the deadline. The submission time recorded by Avue Digital Services is final
- * Mailed, emailed, or faxed applications.
- * Multiple applications from the same applicant. Later applications will be disqualified.
- * Corrections, changes, or updates to a submitted application, other than personal contact information.
- * Letters of recommendation.
- * Separately submitted cover letters, resumes, or transcripts.
- * Telephone calls or email inquiring about receipt of your application.
- * Telephone calls or email requesting the name of your interviewer.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

- I read and understand the Instructions and Information section.
- I understand that the Department of Justice does not defer entry on duty for either Program except in extraordinary circumstances, such as activation for military service, medical hardship, extreme family emergency or similar reasons. The Department does not defer Honors Program entry on the basis of accepting/extending a judicial clerkship.
- I understand that I may withdraw from consideration at any time by opening the "Application Status" tab at the top of the screen. Honors Program applicants may transfer to the Summer Law Intern Program via this process.
