Representative Payee Appli

The Office of Personnel Management (OPM) has received information indicating that tl handling his or her benefits under the Civil Service Retirement System or the Fed annuitant may be a minor child without a parent to handle the benefits.) If the annuitan payments be made to a court-appointed fiduciary or to a person we select to represent appointed by a State court to be responsible for managing funds on behalf of another p

Under the retirement law, the preferred payee in this type of case is a court-appointed appointed, we have authority to make payments to a representative who is willing receiving annuity payments, the person representing the annuitant is responsible for a payments to benefit the annuitant, authorizing the correct withholding of Federal income sponsored health benefits coverage for the annuitant when applicable.

Payments are made to a court-appointed fiduciary or OPM-selected representative w used or conserved for the benefit of the annuitant. In the event that part or all of the an his or her current needs, the representative is required to conserve the unused representative will be held accountable for the funds and will have to provide writte payments are being properly used for the annuitant. Further, the representative is oblig no longer acting for the annuitant. The representative will be held liable for any paymen Such payments must be immediately returned to the U.S. Treasury Department.

OPM will not make a payee change based on a power of attorney or the existence of institution. We require either a State court appointment of a fiduciary or an OPM-adm other than the annuitant to receive payments or authorize actions based on this claim.

If there is a court-appointed fiduciary, he or she may apply to become payee by send appointment in the enclosed envelope with the attached application for selection. (Unce

Privacy Act Statement

Title 5, U.S. Code, Sections 8345 and 8466, authorize solicitation of this information to determine if you will be selected as payee for the annuitant. This information may be shared and is subject to verification via paper, electronic media, or through the use of computer matching programs, with national, state, local, or other charitable or social security administrative agencies to determine and issue benefits under their programs, to obtain information necessary for determination or continuation of benefits under this program, or to report income for tax purposes. It may also be shared and verified, as noted above, with law enforcement agencies when they are investigating a violation or potential violation of civil or criminal law. Executive Order 9397 (November 22, 1943) authorizes the use of the Social Security Number to distinguish you from people with similar names. Provision of this information is voluntary; failure to supply all of the requested information may result in not selecting you as payee for the annuitant.
