

ORR-3 Instructions Unaccompanied Refugee Minor Placement Report

What the ORR-3 Report is:

The Unaccompanied Refugee Minor Placement Report, which replaces ICPC-100B (the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children Initial Placement Form), is an adaptation of that placement report to be used for all unaccompanied youth eligible for and provided services through the Office of Refugee Resettlement's Unaccompanied Refugee Minor (URM) program.¹

When referring to "minors" or "youth," this ORR-3 form and instructions means both children under the age of 18 and youth over the age of 18 who are receiving and/or have received placement including independent living and ETV benefits and services funded by ORR.

Who Fills out and Submits the ORR-3:

The form needs to be filled and reviewed by both the URM program provider and state agency.

- A caseworker or program manager fills out the form initially.
- Once it is completed, it is then sent to the State Refugee Coordinator (SRC).
- The SRC reviews, endorses and submits the form to ORR.

When the ORR-3 is to be Submitted:

The Unaccompanied Refugee Minor Placement Report is to be used for the following reporting situations:

- Initial Placement:

Indicate initial placement for newly arrived refugee minors or other eligible youth. This form is due to ORR within 30 days of the initial placement. All information in sections needs to be filled out to the best of the providers including Section VI, if applicable.

- Change of Status:

Indicate any changes in placement information per the choices available on the form, including youth who emancipate from placement services but are still receiving ORR-funded services. Change in identifying data should include updated information for the youth as well as his/her parents. When completing the ORR-3 for a 'Change of Status,' only fill out the first page of Form ORR-3 including Section I, the information that is new or changing and Section VII: Form Submission Authority. Completing a 'Change of Status' does not require filling out the entire form but only the information that is changing. This form is due to ORR within 60 days of the change.

- Termination from ORR-Funded Services:

Provide Final Report related to youth terminating URM services, including the youth's destination or current situation upon case closure as well as the date ORR-funded services terminated. Only complete Sections I and Section VII: Form Submission Authority when submitting a termination report. Any changes to identifying information on a youth should be submitted through a separate Change of Status Report. A Termination Report is due to ORR within 60 days of case closure.²

- Re-entered ORR-funded Services:

Select this option for youth reentering the URM program. Placement of youth re-entering URM services is limited to youth who were previously enrolled as a URM and who are eligible to return to the program according to the State's Title IV-B plan.

INSTRUCTIONS for COMPLETING the ORR-3 REPORT

1. Initial Placement: Initial placement report that must be submitted within 30 days of placement.
2. Change of Status: Select all related changes and enter date(s) of action(s).
 - Establishing/changing legal responsibility: Select when legal responsibility has been established or changed at an appropriate court by a state or local public child welfare agency, or with a licensed non-public child welfare agency under contract with the state. This does not apply to each permanency hearing review. ORR only wants a change of status report should the custodian change etc.
 - Transfer to/from another URM program: Select when a youth transfers to or from another URM program; provide location information in the explanation box below. If it is a transfer to another state, please follow the state's procedures for interstate transfer, per 45 CFR 400.119. Transfers to/from another URM program are to be reported to ORR as a change of status rather than termination and re-entry, since the youth remains in the federal URM program. That is, if a youth comes into your program from another URM program, you only need to submit a change of status report, and no need to submit initial ORR-3 placement.
 - Change in placement: Select when a youth changes placement.
 - Change in placement cost: Select when the placement cost for a youth has changed.
 - Change in immigration/eligibility data: Select when a youth's immigration or eligibility data has changed.

Please include both the name previously recorded in ORR documents and the new name. Ensure that if a name change requires other documents be amended such as an I-94, ORR Approval letter, etc, that this amendment needs to be accomplished through the agency that issues the original document so that it can be reissued to reflect the change in youth's identifying data.

Note 3: When a change in received Alien Registration number (A#) needed: Submit an ORR-3 and provide an explanation in the box under 'Change of Status' that explains the change. If an A# is changing, as opposed to the youth being issued an A# for the first time, then include both the A# previously recorded in ORR documents and the new A#. SECTION IV: PLACEMENT DATA

1. Placement Type: Check the appropriate box to indicate the type of placement for the youth. Fill in the blanks to describe relationships with relative foster caregivers and “other” placements.
 - Relative Foster Care
 - Foster Care
 - Therapeutic Foster Care
 - Group Home
 - Semi-Independent Living: Select if youth is living semi-independently under a supervised arrangement that is paid for or provided by the State, county or URM provider agency. A youth in semi-independent living is not supervised 24 hours a day by an adult and often is provided with increased responsibilities, such as paying bills, assuming leases, and working with a landlord, while under the supervision of an adult. For purposes of reporting to ORR, a semi-independent living placement is distinguished by the state, county or URM provider agency itself: 1) arranging and directly paying for placement as a custodial responsibility or in response to a voluntary agreement with a youth, and 2) ensuring there is a formal arrangement for supervision of the youth, with increasing opportunity for self-care. Placement may occur in a variety of settings, including in an apartment, a family home, a transitional care program or another transitional living arrangement. A semi-independent living placement may also be referred to as a supervised independent living placement.
 - Residential Treatment
 - Inpatient Psychiatric Hospital
 - No placement: Select if the youth does not receive any placement services. This may be selected if a youth is no longer receiving placement services but is still receiving ORR-funded IL or Education services. 3. Caregiver Residence: Indicate the name and address of the caregiver or youth, or if placed with a relative, state the relationship of the relative to the youth and provide the name and address of the relative. Leave this field blank if youth has emancipated from foster care and is no longer receiving placement services; instead, enter youth’s residence under Section IV for Independent Living Residence and Services below.
4. Provider Agency for Placement: This information will populate from the first page. However, if different from the URM provider agency, indicate the name and address of the provider agency providing placement services to the youth. 2. Independent Living – URM placement has ended; Select “yes” if the youth manages his/her own living arrangement and is no longer receiving placement from the URM program, but continues to receive an ORR-funded independent living service or benefit, including education or training vouchers. This may include youth who are no longer eligible for placement or those who have opted not to receive placement services at some point after reaching the age of majority. For purposes of reporting to ORR, a youth may be considered to be living independently, rather than in a semi-independent living placement, if the youth: 1) manages and pays for his or her own living arrangement (perhaps with financial support from the URM program), and 2) receives no formal adult supervision. A youth that is living independently may choose to live in a variety of settings, such as in an apartment, with a former foster family, with roommates, or in another living arrangement. A youth who is living independently may or may not receive an ORR-funded living allowance or stipend. Youth who are living independently also may only be receiving an ORR-funded education or training voucher, without a stipend specifically for living expenses. Note: If the youth is receiving ORR-funded placement services, do not check this box; the youth’s placement should be captured under section under Section IV for Placement Data above.
 - o Enter the amount of stipend per month. Enter the number zero if the youth does not receive a monthly stipend.

This section should be filled out for any URM who is receiving IL services in parity with their state’s plan for providing IL services, whether or not they are in an ORR-funded placement or are living independently after placement services end.
