Privacy Act - Please Read Carefully

This is a DoD computer system. This computer system, which includes all related equipment, networks, and network devices (specifically including access to the internet), is provided only for official U.S. Government business. The information contained within this system is For Official Use Only and is classified as Sensitive. As an authorized user of this system, you accept responsibility for protecting it from unauthorized access or modification. When using the system, you also accept responsibility for protecting the information you work with from loss or misuse.

DoD computer systems may be monitored by authorized personnel to ensure that their use is authorized, to manage the system, to protect against unauthorized access, and to verify security procedures. Monitoring includes "hacker" attacks to test or verify the security of this system against use by unauthorized persons. During these activities, information stored on this system may be examined, copied, and used for authorized purposes, and data or programs may be placed on this system. Therefore, information you place on this system is not private. Use of this DoD computer system, authorized or unauthorized, constitutes consent to official monitoring of this system. Unauthorized use of a DoD computer system may subject you to criminal prosecution. Evidence of unauthorized use collected during monitoring may be provided to appropriate personnel for administrative, criminal, or other action.
