1.	1	Page 1 of the Medicare QUALITY OF CARE COMPLAINT FORM  Information to Help You Fill Out the “Quality of Care Complaint” Form	Delete text: 1. Check the appropriate box indicating whether you would like the physician or provider who is the subject of your complaint to know that you have filed a complaint with the QIO about the care you received. The QIO will not reveal your identity if you check “No.”	Replace: Information about this will be in Question number 8. See below.	Per 42 CFR§ 476.160(a)(1) and §1154 (a)(1)(B) of the SSA, Quality Improvement Organizations have the authority to conduct General Quality of Care Reviews in instance when a beneficiary wishes to remain anonymous. If the beneficiary wishes to remain anonymous, the complaint cannot be processed as a written beneficiary complaint. However, the QIO may process the complaint as a general quality of care review.

If you check “yes” below, the entity that conducts beneficiary satisfaction surveys will mail you a survey in order to inquire about your level of satisfaction with the service you received from the QIO. If you leave this question blank, a QIO will mail you a satisfaction survey. Yes__ No__	Currently at both intake and at the end of their review, QIOs ask beneficiaries whether they can mail the beneficiary a satisfaction survey. The process would be streamlined by asking the beneficiary this question during intake of his/her complaint on the Medicare Quality of Care Complaint Form. It also provides a more accurate written, versus verbal response to the question of whether the beneficiary wishes to be mailed a satisfaction survey.
