Collection and Use of Information

Section 1631(e)(1)(B) of the Social Security Act, as amended, authorizes us to collect this information. We will use this information to determine initial or continuing Supplemental Security Income benefits.

Furnishing us the information is voluntary. However, failing to provide us with all or part of the requested information may prevent an accurate and timely decision on eligibility, denial or suspension of benefits.

We rarely use the information for any purpose other than for determining Supplemental Security Income eligibility. However, we may use it for the administration and integrity of Social Security programs. We may also disclose the information to another person or to another agency in accordance with approved routine uses, which include, but are not limited to the following:

- 1. To enable a third party or an agency to assist us in establishing rights to Social Security benefits and coverage;
- 2. To comply with Federal laws requiring the release of information from our records (e.g. to the Government Accountability Office and Department of Veterans' Affairs);
- 3. To make determinations for eligibility in similar health and income maintenance programs at the Federal, State, and local level; and, (check statue)
- 4. To facilitate statistical research, audit, and investigatory activities necessary to assure the integrity and improvement of Social Security programs.

We may also use the information you provide in computer matching programs. Matching programs compare our records with records kept by other Federal, State, or local government agencies. Information from these matching programs can be used to establish or verify a person's eligibility for federally-funded and administered benefit programs and for repayment of payment's or delinquent debts under these programs.

A complete list of routine uses of this information is available in our Privacy Act Systems of Records Notices entitled, Claims Folders Systems, 60-0089, and Supplemental Security income Record and Special Veterans Benefits, 60-0103. This notice, additional information regarding our programs and systems are available on-line at www.socialsecurity.gov or at your local Social Security office.
