This certifies that the research protocol and consent documents described above have been approved by the NORC Institutional Review Board (IRB00000967), under its Federal Assurance #FWA00000142, which is valid through August 16, 2013.

Any amendments or other changes to this protocol must be submitted for review by the NORC IRB, and all adverse events must be reported to the NORC IRB.

The IRB has approved your research for a period of one year. To avoid a lapse in IRB approval, please submit your continuing review materials to the IRB at least 2 weeks prior to the expiration date listed above. Although the IRB will provide reminders to you about renewing your study's approval as you near the expiration date, it is the responsibility of the principal investigator and project director to ensure that IRB approval does not lapse and that continuing review materials are submitted before a study's approval expires.
