Warning Letter

May 31, 2006

SAS Institute Inc. Dubai
City Twr 2 Ste 503
Sheikh Zaved Rd
Dubai, United Arab Emirates

Case No 05-22

Gentlemen/Ladies:

We, the Office of Antiboycott Compliance (“OAC”), Bureau of Industry and Security, United States Department of Commerce (“BIS”), find that the facts described in Table A (attached) support a potential violation by you, SAS Institute Inc. Dubai, a subsidiary of SAS Institute Inc, of Section 760.5 of the Export Administration Regulations (currently codified at 15 C.F.R. Parts 730-774 (2003)) (the “Regulations”), which are issued under the authority of the Export Administration Act of 1979, as amended (50 U.S.C. §§ 2401-2420 (1994 & Supp. V 1999)) (the “Act”),¹ in that, you failed to report a request in a timely manner to furnish prohibited information about business relationships with boycotted countries or blacklisted persons (see attached Table A).

Such violation can result in the imposition against you of a civil penalty and/or any of the other sanctions set forth in Section 764.3 of the Regulations, including referral of the matter to the United States Department of Justice for consideration of criminal prosecution. However, having considered all the facts and circumstances known to us at this time, including specifically the fact that you discovered this violation yourself and voluntarily disclosed it to us, we are closing this investigation with the issuance of this Warning Letter.

¹ From August 21, 1994 through November 12, 2000, the Act was in lapse. During that period, the President, through Executive Order 12924, which had been extended by successive Presidential Notices, the last of which was August 3, 2000 (3 C.F.R., 2000 Comp. 397 (2001)), continued the Regulations in effect under the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (50 U.S.C. §§ 1701-1706 (2000)) (“IEEPA”). On November 13, 2000, the Act was reauthorized by Pub. L. No. 106-508 (114 Stat. 2360 (2000)) and remained in effect through August 20, 2001. Executive Order 13222 of August 17, 2001 (3 C.F.R., 2001 Comp. 783 (2002)), which has been extended by successive Presidential Notices, the most recent being that of August 2, 2005 (70 Fed. Reg. 45273 (August 5, 2005)), continues the Regulations in effect under IEEPA.

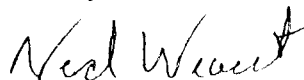

It is important that you comply with these Regulations in the future. This Warning Letter applies only to the transaction referred to herein. Other violations of the Regulations not expressly referred to in this Warning Letter may result in the institution of administrative proceedings against you.

Warning Letters are made available for public inspection and copying in the Freedom of Information Records Inspection Facility, Room 6881, U.S. Department of Commerce, Washington, D.C. 20230, thirty calendar days after mailing. Any comment, response or explanation you wish to make with respect to this matter will also be made available to the public for inspection and copying.

Should you have any questions or comments relating to this Warning Letter, please contact me at (202) 482-2009.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Neal Weant". The signature is written in black ink and is positioned below the word "Sincerely,".

Attention: Terry Garner, Group President
Network Solutions

Gentlemen/Ladies:

We, the Office of Antiboycott Compliance, Bureau of Industry and Security, United States Department of Commerce ("BIS"), have reason to believe that you, Andrew Corporation, have violated § 760.5 of the Export Administration Regulations (currently codified at 15 C.F.R. Parts 730-774 (2007)) (the "Regulations"),¹ which are issued under the authority of the Export Administration Act of 1979, as amended (50 U.S.C. app. §§ 2401-2420 (2000)) (the "Act")² in that, you failed to report your receipt of a request to refuse to do business with persons known or believed to be restricted from having any business relationship with or in a boycotted country (see attached Table A).

However, having considered all the facts and circumstances known to us at this time, including specifically the fact that you discovered the violation(s) yourself and voluntarily disclosed it to us, we are closing this investigation with the issuance of this Warning Letter. This Warning Letter applies only to the transaction(s) referred to herein. Other violations of the Regulations not expressly referred to in this Warning Letter may result in the institution of administrative proceedings against you.

¹ The alleged violations occurred during the year 2004. The Regulations governing the violations at issue are found in the 2004 version of the Code of Federal Regulations (15 C.F.R. Parts 730-774 (2004)). The prior years' Regulations are substantially the same as the 2007 version of the Regulations which govern the procedural aspects of this matter.

² Since August 21, 2001, the Act has been in lapse and the President, through Executive Order 13222 of August 17, 2001 (3 C.F.R., 2001 Comp. 783 (2002)), which has been extended by successive Presidential Notices, the most recent of which was August 3, 2006 (71 Fed. Reg. 44551 (August 7, 2006)), has continued the Regulations in effect under the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (50 U.S.C. §§ 1701-1706 (2000)).

The Regulations apply to all United States persons. You should, therefore, ensure that Andrew Corporation strictly adheres to the Regulations in all future transactions.

Warning Letters are made available for public inspection and copying in the Freedom of Information Electronic Reading Room section displayed on the Bureau of Industry and Security website at www.efoia.bis.doc.gov.

HSBC Bank USA NA
452 Fifth Avenue, 15th Floor
New York, NY 10018

Attention: John Hudson, SVP

Case No. 02-09

Dear Mr. Hudson:

We, the Office of Antiboycott Compliance, Bureau of Industry and Security, United States Department of Commerce (“BIS”), following our examination of certain transactions of HSBC Bank USA NA (“HSBC”) involving export letters of credit, have reason to believe that you, HSBC violated Section 760.5 of the Export Administration Regulations (currently codified at 15 C.F.R. Parts 730-774 (2007)) (“the Regulations”),¹ which are issued under the authority of the Export Administration Act of 1979, as amended (50 U.S.C. app. §§2401-2420 (2000)) (the “Act”)² in that HSBC Bank USA NA on two occasions failed to report to the Department of Commerce (“Department”) its receipt of a request to engage in a restrictive trade practice or boycott as required by the Regulations.

Specifically, in December 2004 and January 2005, HSBC received two letters of credit each issued by Saudi British Bank in Saudi Arabia, numbered DIBWPM 403543 and DPCWPM 500606, respectively, each of which contained a request to take an action that would have the effect of furthering or supporting a restrictive trade practice or unsanctioned foreign boycott. Section 760.5 of the Regulations requires U.S. persons to report to the Department their receipts of such requests. You failed to report to the Department your receipts of these requests.

¹ The alleged violations occurred in 2004 and 2005. The Regulations governing the alleged violations at issue are found in the 2004 and 2005 versions of the Code of Federal Regulations (15 C.F.R. Parts 730-774 (2004 and 2005)). The prior years’ Regulations are substantially the same as the 2007 version of the Regulations which govern the procedural aspects of this matter.

² Since August 21, 2001, the Act has been in lapse and the President, through Executive Order 13222 of August 17, 2001 (3 C.F.R., Comp. 783 (2002)), which has been extended by successive Presidential Notices, the most recent of which was August 15, 2007 (72 Fed. Reg. 46137 (August 16, 2007)), has continued the Regulations in effect under the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (50 U.S.C. §§ 1701-1706 (2000)).

All U.S. persons are required to comply with the Regulations. However, having considered all the facts and circumstances known to us at this time, including the results of our examination of HSBC's records in 2002 and 2007, we are closing this investigation with the issuance of this Warning Letter. This Warning Letter applies only to the actions and circumstances referred to herein. You should therefore ensure that HSBC strictly adheres to the Regulations in all future transactions. Failure to do so may result in the institution of administrative proceedings against you.

Warning Letters are made available for public inspection in the Freedom of Information Reading Room section displayed on the Bureau of Industry and Security web site, at <http://efoia.bis.doc.gov>.

Should you have any questions or comments or need additional assistance, please contact me at 202 482-2381.
