

Plays make-believe

Uses safety scissors

Tells a story

Today was an extra special day.
This afternoon, I got to go see my doctor for a checkup.

My mom and dad told her about all the things
I can do now that I'm 3. The doctor was happy with how AMAZING I can be.

Shows
independence

Shows concern for a crying friend

Builds towers
with blocks

Before dinner, my mom and I baked cookies.

“You can’t eat just cookies for dinner!” says my mom.

“Yes, I can!”

“I don’t think so...”

“But I’m a STAR!”

“Of course you are...”

“...and I’m your mom.
It’s my job to make sure
you eat just right,
so taste those peas
without a food fight.”

Every night when it's time to go to bed, I get to brush my own teeth.
I am an AMAZING brusher!

“Here, let me do the toothpaste,” says my mom.

“But I can do it all by myself!”

“I don’t think so...”

“But I’m a STAR!”

“Of course you are...”

“...and I’m your mom.

It’s my job to help put the paste on your brush.

I have to make sure you don’t use too much.

You do your best to get your teeth clean.

Then I’ll check your work – we make a GREAT team!”

It's so busy being 3. My day is about done.

"One more book and then it's time to go to bed," my dad says to me.

“But why? Why do I...
(yawn)...have to go to bed?
I’m not tired, and I want to stay up longer!”

“I don’t think so...”

“But I’m a STAR!”

“Of course you are...”

“...and it’s our job to make sure you get enough rest.
If you don’t go to sleep,
you can’t be your best.
Remember, you’ve got
another big day ahead,
and you can’t be AMAZING
if you don’t go to bed.”

I'd better go to sleep, because I really do love to be AMAZING!

Milestone Moment: Joey says words like "I," "me," "we," and "you."

AMAZING Developmental Milestones

Watch and see if your 3-year-old child can do each of these milestones.

Take this book with you and talk with your child's doctor at every visit about which milestones your child has reached and what to expect next.

For more milestones, parenting tips, and other free materials, visit www.cdc.gov/AmazingMe or call 1-800-CDC-INFO and ask for a free Milestones Parent Resource Kit.

Parenting Tips

How you can help your 3-year-old learn and grow:

- Take your child to play groups or other places where there are other children, such as a playground or park, so your child can learn to play with and get along with others.
- Talk to your child about his emotions. For example, say, “I can tell you feel mad because you threw the puzzle piece.” Encourage your child to identify feelings in books.
- Set rules and limits for your child, and stick to them. Praise your child for following the rules. If your child breaks a rule, give her a time-out for 30 seconds to 1 minute in a chair or in her room.
- Read to your child every day. Ask your child to point to things in the pictures and repeat words after you.
- Give your child an “activity box” with paper, crayons, and coloring books. Color and draw lines and shapes with your child.

Talk to your child's doctor if your child:

- Falls down a lot or has trouble going up or down stairs
- Drools or has very unclear speech
- Can't work simple toys (such as pegboards, simple puzzles, turning a handle)
- Doesn't speak in sentences
- Doesn't understand simple instructions
- Doesn't play pretend or make-believe
- Doesn't want to play with other children or with toys
- Doesn't make eye contact
- Loses skills he or she once had

If you're concerned or have questions about your child's development, talk with your child's doctor. Don't wait.

“I learned a lot from this book! It shows you the typical things your child does day-to-day, but reminds you that they are important signs of development.”

– Mother of 3-year-old, North Carolina

“As a physician, I would welcome this book as a way to talk about development at well-child visits.”

– Misty Janssen, MD, Nebraska

“My kids were really excited about this book. It was a lot of fun reading it to them, and they wanted to read it again afterward!”

– Mother of 2-year-old and 3-year-old, North Carolina

“Amazing Me highlights important steps in every 3-year-old’s development.”

– Judy Shaw EdD, MPH, RN, FAAP, Co-Editor,
Bright Futures Guidelines, 3rd Edition

In this story, an amazing kangaroo named Joey shows all of the amazing things he can do now that he is 3 years old.

Parents, this book will show you what to look for as your child grows and develops.

Ask your child to find the koala bears. Each page with a koala bear  also has a star  and milestone at the bottom just for you. See if your 3-year-old child is able to do some of the same things as Joey.
