In General: The Affirmative Fair Housing Marketing (AFHM) Plan is used to ensure that Federal Housing Administration (FHA)-insured condominium/cooperative developers are taking necessary steps to eliminate discriminatory practices and to overcome the effects of past discrimination involving Federally insured housing. No application for any housing development insured under the Department of Housing and Urban Development's (HUD) housing programs, shall be funded without a HUD-approved AFHM Plan (See the "Applicability" section in the instructions below.) condominium/cooperative developers complete the AFHM Plan only during the application process and the AFHM Plan is in effect until after initial occupancy. The responses are required to obtain or retain benefits under the Fair Housing Act, Section 808(e)(5) & (6) and 24 CFR Part 200, Subpart M. There is no assurance of confidentiality.

Applicability: Condominium/cooperative developers should answer the following two questions to determine if they need to complete an AFHM Plan.

Question 1. (Check if applicable)

- a. Did you sell five (5) or more units in the last twelve (12) months with HUD mortgage insurance?
- b. Do you intend to sell five (5) or more units within the next twelve (12) months with HUD mortgage insurance?

If you did not check 1a or 1b, you do not have to complete an AFHM Plan.

If you checked 1a and/or 1b, you must go to Question 2.

Question 2. (Check if applicable)

- a. I am a signatory in good standing to a Voluntary Affirmative Marketing Agreement (VAMA).
- b. I have an AFHM Plan that HUD approved.
- c. I have contracted with a company that has an AFHM Plan or who is a signatory to a VAMA to market my houses.
- d. I certify that I will comply with the following: (a) Carry out an affirmative marketing program to attract all minority and majority groups to the housing for initial sale. Such a program shall typically involve publicizing to minority persons the availability of housing opportunities regardless of race, color, religion, sex, disability, familial status or national origin, through the type of media customarily utilized by the applicants; (b) Maintain a nondiscriminatory hiring policy in recruiting from both minority and majority groups; (c) Instruct all employees and agents in writing and orally of the policy of nondiscrimination and fair housing; (d) Conspicuously display the Fair Housing Poster in all Sales Offices, include the Equal Housing Opportunity logo, slogan and statement in all printed material used in connection with sales, and post in a prominent position at the project site a sign that displays the Equal Opportunity logo, slogan or statement, as listed in 24 CFR 200.620 and appendix to subpart M to part 200. I understand that I am obliged to develop and maintain records on these activities, and make them available to HUD upon request.

If you checked "a, b, c, or d" in Question 2, you do not have to complete an AFHM Plan.

If you did not check “a, b, c or d” in Question 2, you must complete an AFHM Plan.

Each applicant is required to carry out an affirmative program to attract prospective buyers of all minority and non-minority groups in the housing market area regardless of their race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability or familial status (24 CFR 200.620). Racial groups include White, Black or African American, American Indian or Alaska Native, Asian, Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander. Other groups in the housing market area who may be subject to housing discrimination include, but are not limited to, Hispanic or Latino, persons with disabilities, families with children, or persons of different religious affiliations. The applicant shall describe in the AFHM Plan the proposed activities to be carried out during advance marketing, where applicable, and the initial sales period. The affirmative marketing program also should ensure that any group(s) of persons ordinarily not likely to apply for this housing without special outreach (See Part 3), know about the housing, feel welcome to apply and have the opportunity to buy.
