This letter does not imply that you or your employee intentionally provided incorrect information about the employee's name or SSN. It is not a basis, in and of itself, for you to take any adverse action against the employee, such as laying off, suspending, firing, or discriminating against the individual. Any employer that uses the information in this letter to justify taking adverse action against an employee may violate state or Federal law and be subject to legal consequences. Moreover, this letter makes no statement about your employee's immigration status.

For Spanish-speaking individuals: Esta carta no implica que usted ni su empleador intencionalmente proveyeron información incorrecta sobre el nombre o número de Seguro Social del empleado. El hecho de que haya recibido esta carta no constituye una razón, de por sí, para que tome alguna acción adversa contra el empleado, tal como suspenderlo, despedirlo o discriminar contra el individuo. Cualquier empleador que use la información en esta carta para justificar una acción adversa contra un empleado puede encontrarse en violación de la ley estatal o federal, y estar sujeto a enfrentar consecuencias legales. Además, esta carta no hace ninguna declaración sobre el estado inmigratorio de su empleado. Esta carta pide información sobre las ganancias que usted informó para su empleado. Si usted necesita una traducción de esta carta, por favor llámenos gratis al, 1-800-772-1213, de lunes a viernes, desde las 7 a.m. hasta las 7 p.m.

THIS IS WHAT YOU NEED TO DO

1. Compare the information shown on the front of this letter to your employment records.
2. If the records match, ask the employee to give you the name and Social Security number exactly as it appears on the employee's Social Security card. (While the employee must furnish the SSN to you, the employee is not required to show you the Social Security card. But, seeing the card will help ensure that all records are correct.)
3. If the employee's Social Security card does not show the employee's correct name or Social Security number, or if the employee needs to report a name change or replace a lost Social Security card, have the employee contact any Social Security office.
4. If you or the employee has been using an incorrect name or Social Security number, you must correct it.
5. Fill in the requested information below and return this letter in the enclosed envelope. (Do not attach a Form W-2c to this letter.)

POINTERS FOR CORRECT REPORTING

- 1) ~~The Internal Revenue Code requires an employer to include each employee's Social Security number when filing returns, such as the W-2 Wage and Tax Statements. The employer identification number must also appear on such returns.~~
- 2) ~~Ask for the employee's Social Security number and explain that the law requires the employee to give the number although (s)he may be ineligible for benefits.~~
- 3) ~~Include the middle initial if shown on the employee's Social Security card.~~
Format: John C. Smith

~~THE PRIVACY ACT~~

See Revised Privacy Act Statement

~~Section 205(a) of the Social Security Act allows us to ask for the information on this letter. The information you give us will be used to give the employee credit for the correct amount of wages. You do not have to complete this letter. However, if you do not, we cannot give the employee credit for the correct amount of wages. We may give this information to the Internal Revenue Service for tax administration purposes or to the Department of Justice for investigating and prosecuting violations of the Social Security Act.~~

~~We may also use the information you give us when we match records by computer. Matching programs compare our records with those of other Federal, State or local government agencies. Many agencies may use matching programs to find or prove that a person qualifies for benefits paid by the Federal government. The law allows us to do this even if you do not agree to it. Explanations about these and other reasons why information you provide us may be used or given out are available in Social Security offices. If you want to learn more about this, contact any Social Security office.~~

~~PAPERWORK REDUCTION ACT~~

See Revised PRA Statement

~~This information collection meets the requirements of 44 U.S.C. § 3507, as amended by section 2 of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. You do not need to answer these questions unless we display a valid Office of Management and Budget control number. We estimate that it will take about 10 minutes to read the instructions, gather the facts, and answer the questions. You may send comments on our time estimate above to: SSA, 6401 Security Blvd., Baltimore, MD 21235-6401. Send only comments relating to our time estimate to this address, not the completed form.~~

SSA will insert the following revised Privacy Act Statement into the form at its next scheduled reprinting:

Privacy Act Statement
Collection and Use of Personal Information

Sections 205(a) and 205(c)(2)(A) of the Social Security Act, as amended, authorize us to collect this information. We will use the information you provide to give the employee credit for the correct amount of wages earned.

Furnishing us this information is voluntary. However, failing to provide us with all or part of the information may prevent us from crediting the employee the correct amount of wages earned.

We rarely use the information you supply us for any purpose other than to make a determination regarding claims and earnings discrepancies. However, we may use the information for the administration of our programs including sharing information:

1. To comply with Federal laws requiring the release of information from our records (e.g., to the Government Accountability Office and Department of Veterans Affairs);
2. To facilitate statistical research, audit, or investigative activities necessary to assure the integrity and improvement of our programs (e.g., to the Bureau of the Census and to private entities under contract with us).

A complete list of when we may share your information with others, called routine uses, is available in our Privacy Act Systems of Records Notice entitled, Earnings Recording and Self-Employment Income System, 60-0059. Additional information about this and other system of records notices and our programs are available online at www.socialsecurity.gov or at your local Social Security office.

We may share the information you provide to other health agencies through computer matching programs. Matching programs compare our records with records kept by other Federal, State or local government agencies. We use the information from these programs to establish or verify a person's eligibility for federally funded or administered benefit programs and for repayment of incorrect payments or delinquent debts under these programs.

SSA will insert the following revised PRA Statement into the form at its next scheduled reprinting:

Paperwork Reduction Act Statement - This information collection meets the requirements of 44 U.S.C. § 3507, as amended by section 2 of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995.
