The screenshot shows the U.S. Department of State Consular Electronic Application Center interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with "Manage Account" and "Sign Out" links. Below this is a header with the U.S. Department of State logo and the text "U.S. DEPARTMENT of STATE CONSULAR ELECTRONIC APPLICATION CENTER". A secondary navigation bar contains tabs for "FEE", "SUMMARY", "COMPLETE", "REVIEW", and "SIGN".

The main content area is titled "J Visa Waiver Online" and displays "Application ID: 237" and "Waiver Case File Number: Pending". A left sidebar menu includes options like "Exchange Visitor Info", "Attorney", "Address and Phone", "Waiver Basis", "Program/Non-Program", "Dependent Information", and "J Visa History".

The "Attorney Information" section contains the following text:

If you select an attorney, you must notify your attorney to log-in and accept your application. Once your attorney accepts, they will be able to view your personal information and edit your application.

Once you save an attorney, you or your attorney can continue with your application.

If you remove an attorney, they will no longer be able to access your application.

A question-and-answer section asks: "Q: Are you represented by an attorney or other organization?" with the answer "A: Yes No".

At the bottom of the form area are three buttons: "Back", "Save", and "Next".

At the very bottom of the page, there is a disclaimer: "This site is managed by the Bureau of Consular Affairs, U.S. Department of State. CASE NUMBER: 800001

Sign and Submit

Read the following information carefully before electronically signing and submitting the application.

Your application is now ready to be submitted. Please note that this does not necessarily mean that your application for a nonimmigrant visa is complete as additional information may be needed after Department of State personnel have reviewed the application.

By clicking "Sign and Submit Application" you are electronically signing the application. You are required to electronically sign your application yourself, unless otherwise exempt by regulation. Even if the application has been prepared by someone other than yourself, your electronic signature verifies that you have read and understood the questions in this application and that your answers are true and correct to the best of your knowledge and belief. The submission of an application containing any false or misleading statements may result in the permanent refusal of a visa or the denial of entry into the United States. All declarations made in this application are unsworn declarations made under penalty of perjury (U.S.C. 1746).

The information that you have provided in your application and other information submitted with your application may be accessible to other government agencies having statutory or other lawful authority to use such information, including for law enforcement and immigration law enforcement purposes. The photograph that you provide with your application may be used for employment verification or other U.S. law purposes.
