Appeals:

1. Brief

You do not need to submit a brief in support of your appeal. If you do submit a brief and/or additional evidence, you may submit these materials at the time of initial filing of the Notice of Appeal or Motion (I-290B) or within 30 days of filing.

Any brief and/or additional evidence submitted after the initial filing of the Notice of Appeal or Motion must be submitted directly to the AAO. Click here for the correct submission address.

Any brief and additional evidence must specifically reference the appeal for which it is being submitted. If an affected party has filed multiple appeals with the AAO, separate copies of the brief and evidence must be provided for each individual appeal. Failure to do so may result in the return of the brief or evidence to the individual or entity that submitted it and preclude such material from consideration.

If you need more than 30 calendar days to submit a brief, you must make a written request to the AAO within 30 calendar days of filing the appeal. The AAO may grant more time to submit a brief for good cause.

2. Oral Argument

You may request an oral argument before the AAO in Washington, DC in a letter attached as evidence to this filing. The letter must explain specifically why an oral argument is necessary (i.e. why your argument cannot be adequately addressed in writing). If your request is granted, the AAO will contact you about setting the date and time. The U.S. Government does not furnish interpreters for oral arguments.

If any of the three motion options is selected, the following language will be displayed:

		Motions: (a) If you file a motion to reopen, the motion must be accompanied by new facts and/or documentary evidence that establish eligibility at the time of filing the initial petition or application (b) If you file a motion to reconsider, you must provide the citations to the statute, regulation, or precedent decisions that serve(s) as the basis for your motion to reconsider. The motion must establish that the decision was based on an incorrect application of law or policy, and that the decision was incorrect based on the evidence of record at the time of the decision. (c) No additional time will be permitted to submit supplementary arguments or evidence in support of a motion to reopen or reconsider after the Notice of Appeal or Motion has been filed.
