5. What documents should I submit if I was arrested or convicted for a criminal offense?

A. Court Disposition Records

If you were ever arrested, charged, and/or convicted for a criminal offense, you will need to provide court disposition records.

Provide a certified copy of all arrest reports, court dispositions, sentencing documents, and any other relevant documents. You may also include any mitigating evidence concerning the circumstances of your arrests or convictions that you would like USCIS to consider if you have been arrested or convicted of a crime. If you were placed on probation, you must provide evidence to show that you completed your probationary period.

You do not need to submit documentation for traffic fines and incidents (unless the traffic fines or incidents were alcohol- or drug-related) that did not involve an actual arrest if the penalty was only a fine of less than $500 or points on your driver's license. However, if you were arrested for any traffic offense, provide disposition documentation, so USCIS can properly assess whether your conviction may relate to your TPS eligibility.

NOTE: Provide the conviction and disposition documentation even if your records were sealed, expunged, or otherwise cleared. You must provide the documentation even if anyone, including a judge, law enforcement officer, or attorney, told you that you no longer have a record or that you do not have to disclose the information.

	6. What If Documents Are Not Available... 7. Will TPS Applicants Need to Provide Fingerprints and Photographs? Yes, except as noted below.... TPS applicants under 14 years of age who are not filing for an EAS are exempt from biometrics collection and the associated biometrics fee..... Please see No. 12 for information about fee waiver requests..... USCIS may, in its discretion, waive the collection of certain biometrics.	B. Particularly Serious Crimes and Serious Nonpolitical Crimes If you were ever convicted of or ever committed a “particularly serious crime” that constitutes a “danger to the community of the United States,” or there are serious reasons for believing that you have committed “serious nonpolitical crimes” outside of the United States before your arrival in this country, you cannot be granted TPS. USCIS will make the determination as to whether your crimes fall into either of these categories. You must, however, provide information and, if available, any supporting documentation on all crimes which you have committed or were convicted of in the United States or outside of this country so that USCIS can make an appropriate decision. If you believe that any of your arrests or convictions were based on political reasons, describe why in your supplemental statements. 6. What if documents are not available... [Page 6] 7. Will TPS applicants need to provide fingerprints and photographs? A. Yes. Except as noted below, all applicants for initial registration, re-registration, or renewal of TPS must provide... --	---	--

	NOTE: An Employment Authorization Document is not a travel document. If your application for TPS is granted and you must travel outside the United States and return, you must request advanced parole from USCIS by filing a Form I-131, Application for Travel Document, with the appropriate USCIS office. A Form I-512 travel document will be issued to you if your request is granted. 12. May the Filing and Biometrics Fees for Forms I-821 and I-765 Be Waived? Yes. If you are unable to pay the filing and biometrics fees, 8 CFR 103.7(c) states that you may apply for a waiver of fees. To request a fee waiver, a person requesting an immigration benefit must submit a written request for permission to have their request processed without payment of a fee with their benefit request. The request must state the person’s belief that he or she is entitled to or deserving of the benefit requested, the reasons for his or her inability to pay, and evidence to support the reasons indicated. There is no appeal of the denial of a fee waiver request.	If you are under 14 years of age or over 65 years of age, you may request an Employment Authorization Document (EAD) without fee when filing an initial TPS application. All applicants, regardless of age, must pay the Form I-765 filing fee if requesting an EAD when submitting a TPS re-registration application. NOTE: An EAD is not a travel document. If your application for TPS is granted and you must travel outside the United States and return, you must request advanced parole from USCIS by filing Form I-131, Application for Travel Document. USCIS will issue a Form I-512 travel document to you if your request is granted. For more information on filing Form I-131, visit the USCIS Web site at www.uscis.gov/I-131 or call the USCIS National Customer Service Center at 1-800-375-5285. For TDD (deaf or hard of hearing) call: 1-800-767-1833. 9. May the filing and biometrics services fees for Forms I-821 and I-765 be waived? Yes. If you are unable to pay the filing and biometrics fees, 8 CFR 103.7(c) states that you may request a waiver of the fees. To request a fee waiver, a person requesting an immigration benefit must submit a written request or a Form I-912, Request for Fee Waiver, accompanied by documentation of your inability to pay the required fees. In your request you should indicate why you believe you are entitled to or deserving of the benefit requested, the reason for your inability to pay the fees, and evidence to support the reasons you give. You may not appeal the denial of your fee waiver request.

		10. Can any of the grounds of inadmissibility that apply to TPS be waived if an applicant is found to be inadmissible on one or more of those grounds? Yes, USCIS may waive some, but not all, of the grounds of inadmissibility in section 212(a) of the INA applicable to TPS, as a matter of discretion, provided that USCIS determines that a waiver is appropriate for humanitarian purposes, to assure family unity or is otherwise in the public interest. If you are subject to an inadmissibility ground that may be waived, USCIS will send you a notice informing you of your opportunity to apply for a discretionary waiver on Form I-601, Waiver of Grounds of Inadmissibility. If you already know that you are inadmissible on a waivable ground that requires a Form I-601 for TPS purposes, you may also file the Form I-601 with the appropriate fee (or Form I-912 or fee waiver request) at the time you file your Form I-821. Please note that USCIS cannot waive some inadmissibility grounds cannot be waived, by law, including certain criminal grounds in INA 212(a)(2)(A-C) and national security, terrorism-related, and persecution grounds in INA 212(a)(3)(A-C, E). If you answered "Yes" to any of the questions in Part 4. Eligibility Standards that are not related to crimes, national security, terrorism, genocide, persecution of others, or human rights abuses, you may be able to obtain a discretionary waiver. For further information on procedures for applying for a waiver, see the TPS section of the Form I-601 instructions and additional information on the TPS page on the USCIS Web site at www.uscis.gov/tps. You may also wish to obtain legal advice if you believe you may be subject to any ground of inadmissibility or another TPS ineligibility ground.

Reporting Burden...	If you are re-registering for TPS and you were already granted a waiver of a ground of inadmissibility in conjunction with your prior TPS application, you do not need to seek another waiver for the same action, incident, or circumstance. For example, if on a prior TPS application, USCIS previously granted you a waiver of the health ground of inadmissibility because you had tuberculosis that was treated, you do not need to apply for another waiver for that same health incident. However, you would need to file for a waiver if you have contracted another communicable disease for which a waiver is necessary. [See Address Change] [See USCIS Privacy Act] [See USCIS Forms and Information] [See Paperwork Reduction Act]
