The High School Longitudinal Study of 2009 (HSL:09) is a national longitudinal study that surveys students and their parents, teachers, school administrators, and counselors. The study follows students from the start of high school into adulthood to understand how the high school experience impacts their education and career decisions.

Information was collected in 2009, and again in 2012, about the high school experience, coursetaking, and education expectations. In this round of data collection, the focus of the survey is the young adult's plans for fall 2013 and beyond.

HSL:09 is sponsored by the National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) in the U.S. Department of Education's Institute for Education Sciences. The study is being conducted under contract by RTI International, a nonprofit research organization based in North Carolina.

RTI International is a trade name of Research Triangle Institute.

Through this survey, you have been chosen to represent your generation. Let your voice be heard!

We're interested in your generation's experiences with high school and what comes after.

Over 23,000 students have participated in HSLs:09. While your participation is voluntary, and whether or not you've finished high school or plan to go to college, it is important that we hear from you. The information you provide will inform policymakers and researchers on how the high school experience impacts learning as well as future education and career pathways.

Participation is quick and easy!

All questions in this 15-minute survey are designed to collect information about the young adult and can be provided by the young adult or his/her parent.

Your answers will be kept confidential.

Data collected from the young adult or parent may be used only for statistical purposes and may not be disclosed or used in identifiable form for any other purpose, except as required by law (ESRA 2002, 20 U.S.C., § 9573).

Study schedule.

Data collection is scheduled to start in June 2013. High school transcripts will be collected during the 2013-14 school year. Additional follow-ups are planned for 2016 and beyond. You may be contacted between rounds to update your contact information for the next follow-up.

Snapshot of results from HSLs:09 Fall 2009.

The HSLs:09 base year took place in the 2009-10 school year, with a randomly selected sample of fall-term 9th-graders in more than 900 public and private high schools. Below are the education expectations of 9th graders.

Address Update Information

Thank you very much for your participation in the High School Longitudinal Study of 2009 (HSLs:09). Please take a moment to confirm or update [your/StudentName's] contact information. We are also requesting that you confirm or update contact information for [your parent/yourself] and provide contact information for one additional person. By updating our records, we will be better able to notify [you/him/her] when it is time for the next round of HSLs:09. Please be assured that both NCES and RTI follow strict confidentiality procedures to protect the privacy of study participants. If you would like more information about the HSLs study, please visit <http://surveys.nces.ed.gov/hsls/>.

After you complete this form, please mail it back to RTI International using the enclosed Business Reply Envelope.

This update may also be completed on our secure website at [Website_Fil] by entering your study id: [ID_Fill] and password: [PW_Fill]. You may go online to indicate that the information provided in the form below is correct.

We greatly appreciate your help to make HSLs:09 a continued success!

Dear <Parent or Guardian Name>:

The High School Longitudinal Study of 2009 (HSL:09) appreciates your family's past participation in the study in <2009/2012/2009 and 2012>. A follow-up is now being conducted to learn about <teenagername>'s plans for after high school. This 15-minute questionnaire asks about <teenagername>'s high school completion status, plans after high school including college, work, or joining the military, and the status of any college applications that <teenager> may have submitted. To complete the online survey, please log in using the web address, study ID, and password provided at the top right of this page.

<If incentive: You will receive a $<inc_amt> check as a token of our appreciation after you finish the survey.> Whether or not your <son/daughter> finished high school or plans to go to college, your input is critically important to help us understand all paths that young adults take and the decisions they make about the future.

HSL:09 is conducted by the National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) of the U.S. Department of Education and will inform policymakers on how the high school experience impacts learning as well as future educational and career pathways. This component of the study should help fill an important gap in educators' knowledge of students' and parents' decisionmaking at this critical transition point after high school. <Teenagername>'s and your participation is voluntary, but incredibly important. <Teenagername> was selected to represent <his/her> generation, and this is your family's opportunity to describe the role that high school experiences play in shaping <teenager>'s choices for the future.

All questionnaire items can be completed by either <teenager> or a parent < If student over 18: and a letter was also sent to <teenager> with <his/her> login information>. <<If student under 18: If <teenagername> prefers to complete the questionnaire, please give <him/her> the enclosed letter with information about how to access the questionnaire. By giving <him/her> this letter, you are giving your permission for <him/her> to participate.>

HSL:09 data collection is being carried out by RTI International under contract with NCES. Data collected are used only for statistical purposes and may not be disclosed or used, in identifiable form for any other purpose except as required by law (ESRA 2002, 20 U.S.C., § 9573). The enclosed brochure provides more information about HSL:09. In addition, results from the first round of the study are available on the HSL:09 website mentioned above. If you have questions about the study or prefer to complete the interview over the telephone, please call Randy Ottem toll-free at 1-855-500-1440 or the NCES Project Officer of HSL:09, Dr. Elise Christopher, at 202-502-7899. If you have questions about your rights as a study participant, you may call RTI's Office for Research Protection toll-free at 1-866-214-2043.

We thank you in advance for your cooperation in this important research.

Sincerely,

Jack Buckley, Commissioner

Dear «fname» «lname»:

We are writing to ask that you or <teenagename> complete a 15-minute questionnaire for the High School Longitudinal Study of 2009 (HSLs:09). The purpose of the study is to understand the impact of the high school experience on young adults' learning, their education and career choices, and their transitions from high school to college, the workforce, and adulthood. It is important that we hear from everyone who was selected for the study, whether or not <teenagename> has graduated from high school or plans to go to college.

Either you or your young adult can complete the questionnaire. << If incentivized: We will send you a check for $<<INCENT>> after you complete the questionnaire, as a token of our appreciation. >>

Please log in to the survey using the web address, study ID and password provided above. To complete the interview with one of our professional telephone interviewers, call toll-free at 1-855-500-1440. <<If student under 18: If <teenagename> prefers to complete the questionnaire, please give <teenagename> the enclosed letter to indicate that you have given your permission for <him/her> to participate. The letter explains the study and provides log-in information so <teenagename> can complete the questionnaire.>><<If student over 18: Since either you or your young adult may complete the questionnaire, a letter has also been sent to <teenagename> with <his/her> log-in information.>>

If you have questions about the study, please call Randy Ottem toll-free at 1-855-500-1440 or the NCES Project Officer of HSLs:09, Dr. Elise Christopher, at 202-502-7899.

Dear «fname» «lname»:

We know your time is valuable. We are now offering an abbreviated survey for the High School Longitudinal Study of 2009 (HSLs:09) that will take only about 5 minutes to complete.

<If incentive: You/you will receive a $<inc_amt> check after you finish the survey.>

Please act quickly because the study ends October 31st.

HSLs:09 collects information on the experiences of young adults during and after high school including work experiences, college experiences, and family life. It is vitally important we obtain updated information on all sample members each time that data are collected for the data to be accurate and remain nationally representative of all high school freshmen in the original study sample. Also, your response to our survey is extremely valuable because you will be acting on behalf of all those young adults like you who were not chosen to participate.

Information for completing the questionnaire online is provided above. To complete the interview by telephone with a professional interviewer, call the Help Desk toll-free at 1-855-500-1440.

Your responses may be used only for statistical purposes and may not be disclosed, or used, in identifiable form for any other purpose except as required by law (20 U.S.C. § 9573).

Thank you in advance for your participation in this important study. The information you provide is extremely important, and your cooperation is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Elise Christopher, Ph.D.

Postcard Reminder

GREETINGS FROM HSLs:09!!

This is a friendly reminder to please complete your HSLs:09 questionnaire. It will take just 15 minutes for you or <teenname> to provide valuable information about <teenname>'s plans for the future. Whether or not your <son/daughter> finished high school or plans to go to college, your input is critically important to help us understand all paths that young adults take and the decisions they make about their future.

Either you or <teenname> can complete the questionnaire. To complete the questionnaire online, please log in to our secure website, using the information below:

<https://surveys.nces.ed.gov/hsls>

Study ID = «userid»

Password = «password»<PW_ind>

<if incentive: You will receive $<inc_amt> once you complete the questionnaire as a token of our appreciation.>

If you have any questions or problems completing your questionnaire online, or to complete the interview by telephone, please contact the HSLs:09 help desk at 1-855-500-1440. RTI is collecting data for this study for the National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) of the U.S. Department of Education.

Thank you!

Dear <Teenager Name>:

The High School Longitudinal Study of 2009 (HSLs:09) appreciates your past participation in the study in <2009/2012/2009 and 2012>. A brief follow-up is being conducted to learn about your plans for after high school. This 15-minute questionnaire asks about your high school completion status, plans after high school including college, entering the workforce, or joining the military, and the status of any college applications that you may have submitted. To complete the online survey, please log in using the web address, study ID, and password provided at the top right of this page.

<If incentive: You will receive a $<inc_amt> check as a token of our appreciation after you finish the survey.> Whether or not you finished high school or plan to go to college, your input is critically important to help us understand all paths that young adults take and the decisions you make about your future.

HSLs:09 is conducted by the National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) of the U.S. Department of Education and will inform policymakers on how the high school experience impacts learning as well as future educational and career pathways. This component of the study will help fill an important gap in educators' knowledge of students' and parents' decisionmaking at this critical transition point after high school. Your participation is voluntary, but incredibly important. You were selected to represent your generation, and this is your opportunity to describe the role that high school experiences play in shaping young adults' choices for the future.

<<If young adult over 18: A letter was also sent to <<parent_name>> with their login information since either you or your parent/guardian can complete the questionnaire. If you would prefer that we not contact your parent, please call us toll-free at 1-855-500-1440.>>

HSLs:09 data are being collected by RTI International under contract with NCES. Data collected are used only for statistical purposes and may not be disclosed or used, in identifiable form for any other purpose except as required by law (ESRA 2002, 20 U.S.C., § 9573). The enclosed brochure provides more information about HSLs:09. In addition, results from the first round of the study are available on the HSLs:09 website mentioned above. If you have questions about the study or prefer to complete the interview over the telephone, please call Randy Ottem toll-free at 1-855-500-1440 or the NCES Project Officer of HSLs:09, Dr. Elise Christopher, at 202-502-7899. If you have questions about your rights as a study participant, you may call RTI's Office for Research Protection toll-free at 1-866-214-2043.

We thank you in advance for your cooperation in this important research.

Sincerely,

Jack Buckley, Commissioner

Dear «fname» «lname»:

We are writing to ask that you please complete a 15-minute questionnaire for the High School Longitudinal Study of 2009 (HSLs:09). The purpose of the study is to understand the impact of the high school experience on young adults' learning and their education and career choices. By participating, you have a unique opportunity to help researchers and policymakers understand how young adults make decisions throughout high school and beyond. It is important that we hear from everyone who was selected for the study, whether or not you have graduated high school or plan to go to college.

Either you or your parent may complete the questionnaire. << If incentivized: We will send you a check for $<<INCENT>> after you complete the questionnaire, as a token of our appreciation. >>

Please log in to the survey using the web address, study ID, and password provided above. To complete the interview with one of our professional telephone interviewers or if you have questions, call toll-free at 1-855-500-1440. <<If young adult over 18: Since either you or your parent or guardian can complete the questionnaire, a letter was also sent to <<parent_name>> with their login information. Dear «fname» «lname»:

We know your time is valuable. We are now offering an abbreviated survey for the High School Longitudinal Study of 2009 (HSLs:09) that will take only about 5 minutes to complete.

<If incentive: You/you will receive a $<incent> check after you finish the survey.> Please act quickly because the study ends October 31st.

HSLs:09 collects information on the experiences of young adults during and after high school including work experiences, college experiences, and family life. It is vitally important we obtain updated information on all sample members each time that data are collected for the data to be accurate and remain nationally representative of all high school freshmen in the original study sample. Also, your response to our survey is extremely valuable because you will be acting on behalf of all those young adults like you who were not chosen to participate.

To complete the interview by telephone with a professional interviewer, call the Help Desk toll-free at 1-855-500-1440.

Your responses may be used only for statistical purposes and may not be disclosed, or used, in identifiable form for any other purpose except as required by law (20 U.S.C. § 9573).

Dear «RecipientName»:

A sample of students from your school participated in the High School Longitudinal Study of 2009 (HSL:09). HSL:09 is conducted by the National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) of the U.S. Department of Education, which has contracted with RTI International (RTI), an independent nonprofit research organization, to collect student transcripts for research purposes. Data will be used to provide information that will be used by Congress, researchers, and policymakers to improve the quality of education in America. Transcript data provide important information about how a student's courses and grades make a difference in their subsequent work success and college experiences. At this time, we are contacting you to request transcripts for the HSL:09 sample members from your school. This package includes information about the study and instructions for preparing and transmitting the transcripts.

We have informed parents and students of the transcript collection each time we collected data for HSL:09 since 2009. All correspondence to parents and students contained a reference to the transcript data collection scheduled for the 2013-2014 academic year. That correspondence includes all of our parent consent forms for study participation, the study brochures and web site, the student instructions during the in-school data collection, the panel maintenance postcards sent out each year, and the telephone interview lead letters.

Collection of transcript information is on behalf of the Secretary of Education under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA). FERPA allows the release of records to the Secretary of Education or his agents without prior written consent for the evaluation of Federal- and State-supported education programs. We have provided a copy of the relevant text from FERPA in this package.

NCES is authorized by federal law (20 U.S.C., § 9543) to conduct HSL. Responses and student record information may be used only for statistical purposes and will not be disclosed, or used, in identifiable form for any other purpose, except as required by law (ESRA 2002, 20 U.S.C., § 9573). Data will be combined to produce statistical reports for Congress and others. No individual data (e.g., names or addresses) will be reported.

While federal law permits release of transcripts in this case without obtaining consent, we realize that some schools and districts may sometimes be bound by additional confidentiality regulations of their own. If written or implied consent from parents (if the student is under age 18) or from a student (if 18 years old or over) is required by your school for individual studies, please contact RTI toll-free at 1-XXX-XXX-XXXX so that we can develop consent procedures with you that will fully meet your specific requirements.

Included with this package are instructions for preparing and transmitting transcript data to RTI. A list of students for whom transcripts are requested is posted at the secure study website listed in the box below. To access the site, you will need to log in using the study ID and password printed at the bottom of this letter. Also available at the website are instructions for obtaining reimbursement for the requested transcripts, should your school require it.

We prefer that you send transcripts via an electronic transmission mode, or via fax. We have included a FedEx label for you to use for sending the requested course catalogs, if needed, and you can include transcripts if no other means is possible for your school and if all personally identifiable student information has been removed from the transcripts. Please keep copies of these documents for your records in case we need to contact you about the materials.

We would appreciate receiving the requested transcript data on or before [DUE DATE]. Please do not hesitate to call us if you feel you need to have a later delivery date. If you have any questions about the HSLS:09 transcript collection, please call our Help Desk toll-free at 1-XXX-XXX-XXXX between 8:30 AM and 5 PM Eastern time, Monday through Friday. We can also be reached by e-mail at hsls@rti.org.

A representative from RTI will contact you in a few days to confirm your receipt of this letter, answer any questions you may have, and to identify the person at your school most qualified to provide the requested student transcripts.

Thank you for your cooperation and timely attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Owings, Ph.D.

Dear «RecipientName»:

We are contacting you to request your help. The National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) of the U.S. Department of Education is conducting the High School Longitudinal Study of 2009 (HSL:09). This national study of high school students includes the collection of student transcript data. Some of the students in the HSL:09 study sample attended your school. Your school's assistance is therefore needed to make the results of this study comprehensive, accurate, and timely. We are collecting transcript information for students who have been selected to participate in HSL. Collecting transcripts and related information will not involve any school/classroom time for any of your current students.

Transcripts provide an analytically powerful measure of students' high school curricular experience and performance that may be related both to labor market outcomes and to postsecondary educational access and attainment. HSL:09 data, authorized by federal law (20 U.S.C., § 9543), will be used to provide information that will be used by Congress, researchers, and policymakers to monitor and improve the quality of education. NCES has contracted with RTI International (RTI), an independent nonprofit research organization, to collect the transcript data.

We have informed parents and students of the transcript collection each time we collected data for HSL:09 since 2009. All correspondence to parents and students contained a reference to the transcript data collection scheduled for the 2013-2014 academic year. That correspondence includes all of our parent consent forms for study participation, the study brochures and web site, the student instructions during the in-school data collection, the panel maintenance postcards sent out each year, and the telephone interview lead letters.

Responses and student record information may be used only for statistical purposes and will not be disclosed, or used, in identifiable form for any other purpose, except as required by law (ESRA 2002, 20 U.S.C., § 9573). Data will be combined to produce statistical reports for Congress and others. No individual data (e.g., names or addresses) will be reported.

The granting of U.S. Department of Education authority for collection of the transcript data has been made pursuant to the provisions of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA). FERPA permits the release of records to the Secretary of Education or his agents without prior written consent. We have provided a copy of the relevant text from FERPA in this package. However, while federal law permits release of transcripts in this case without obtaining consent, we realize that some schools and districts may sometimes be bound by additional confidentiality regulations of their own. If active or implied consent from parents (if the student is under age 18) or student (if 18 or over) is required by your school, please contact RTI toll-free at 1-XXX-XXX-XXXX so that we can work out consent procedures with you that will fully meet your specific requirements.

Included with this package are instructions for preparing and transmitting transcript data to RTI. A list of students for whom transcripts are requested is posted at the secure study website listed in the box below. To access the site, you will need to log in using the study ID and password printed at the bottom of this letter.

We prefer that you send transcripts via an electronic transmission mode, or send them via fax. We have included a FedEx label for you to use for sending the requested course catalogs, if needed, and you can include transcripts if none of the electronic transmission modes or faxing is possible for your school, and as long as all personally identifiable student information has been removed from the transcripts. Please keep copies of these documents for your records in case we need to contact you about the materials.

We would appreciate receiving the requested transcript data on or before [DUE DATE]. Please do not hesitate to call us if you feel you need to have a later delivery date. If you have any questions about HSLS:09 transcript collection, please call the Help Desk at RTI toll-free at 1-XXX-XXX-XXXX between 8:30 AM and 5 PM Eastern time, Monday through Friday. We can be reached by e-mail at hsls@rti.org.

A representative from RTI will contact you in a few days to confirm your receipt of this letter, answer any questions you may have and to identify the person at your school most qualified to provide the requested student transcripts.

Thank you for your cooperation and timely attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Owings, Ph.D.
Associate Commissioner, Elementary/Secondary & Libraries Studies Division

Transcript Request Cover Memo To Transcript Coordinator or Registrar

MEMORANDUM

DATE: <insert>
TO: <HSLs:09 Transcript Contact> or Registrar
FROM: Jeffrey Owings, NCES
SUBJECT: High School Longitudinal Study: Transcript Collection

I am contacting you about the High School Longitudinal Study of 2009 (HSLs:09) that is being conducted by the National Center for Education Statistics (NCES), within the U.S. Department of Education. The data are being collected for NCES by RTI International. We are contacting your school to request high school transcripts for the students from your school who were selected to participate in HSLs:09. This part of the HSLs:09 study is extremely important because student transcripts will provide an objective and reliable source of information about the students' educational careers and how a student's courses and grades influence future work success and college experiences.

If you are the most appropriate person to complete this request for transcripts, please review the materials in this packet. If there is someone else you think is more appropriate, please pass this request packet on to him/her at your earliest convenience. We appreciate your help to collect transcript information. Instructions for transmitting transcripts and for obtaining reimbursement for the requested transcripts, should your school require it, can be found on the study website: <https://surveys.nces.ed.gov/hsls/>.

If there are any questions, please contact RTI toll-free at 1-XXX-XXX-XXXX. We will be calling you soon to see if you have any questions.

Thank you very much for your assistance.

Value and Uses of Transcript Data

Value and Uses of Transcript Data

The High School Longitudinal Study of 2009 (HSLs:09) transcript study extends the timeline for an invaluable series of high school transcript collections conducted by the U.S. Department of Education's National Center for Education Statistics (NCES). NCES transcript studies have been conducted both in connection with the National Assessment of Educational Progress (NAEP), and the Center's high school longitudinal studies dating back to 1982. These transcript studies can be used to understand the coursetaking and grades of graduating seniors from 1982, and, with the addition of HSLs, through 2013, and to support trend comparisons over the last three decades.

High school transcripts provide immense value to researchers and policymakers as objective, reliable measures of students' educational experiences. In the course of the first major NCES transcript study (in High School and Beyond, 1982), a methodological comparison was made of student self-reports and school records. This comparison (Fetters, Stowe, and Owings, 1984) established that with respect to level of detail, accuracy, and completeness, transcript data are vastly superior to student self-reports of exposure to learning situations and grades received. Transcript components of longitudinal studies such as HS&B, NELS:88, ELS:2002, and HSLs:09 permit the measurement of high school program and course effects on post-high school outcomes in both the labor force and postsecondary education.

The HSLs:09 transcript files will contain a wealth of information about each student's full high school career. Coursetaking histories include the term, credits earned, and grades received. Additional information is compiled concerning GPA and reason student left the school (graduation, transfer, and so on). Summary variables permit analysts to account for the level or difficulty of coursework in each subject; these "pipeline" measures help to capture the breadth and depth of each student's coursetaking history. The coupling of transcript data with course offerings data will make it possible to relate students' coursetaking choices to their opportunities, and to investigate how curriculum structure influences student course choices and how curriculum relates to achievement.

Because HSLs:09 also contains student questionnaire data from grades 9 and 11—as well as reports from teachers, parents, high school counselors and administrators—coursetaking data can be analyzed in context. This contextual information encompasses each student's home background, various school-level factors, tested achievement, and each student's plans, attitudes, and expectations. Some examples of findings from past NCES transcript studies may help to clarify the kind of information the transcript studies make available—both in conjunction with each other, as a trend line; and in conjunction with longitudinal outcomes (such as achievement gain, and entry into and completion of postsecondary education).

- One of the strongest predictors of postsecondary completion (e.g., B.A. attainment) is the rigorousness or academic intensity of high school curriculum completed (Adelman, 2006).
- Based on the senior classes of 1982, 1992, and 2004, high school graduates' completion of mathematics courses increased over time. Graduates came closer to taking 4 full years of academic coursework in mathematics, moving from, on average, 2.7 total credits in mathematics in 1982 to 3.6 total credits in 2004. In addition, graduates shifted from taking lower level mathematics courses to taking more advanced courses (Dalton et al. 2007).

- Based on the same cohorts, the average number of science credits increased from 2.2 science credits in 1982 to 3.3 science credits in 2004 (Dalton et al. 2007).
- For the high school cohort of 2002 sophomores, re-tested in math two years later, the percentage of students with an understanding of simple problem solving skills grew from 53 to 65 percentage points over the last two years of high school. However, 96 percent of students in the sample left high school without proficiency in the most advanced skills, such as solving multistep word problems (Bozick and Ingels, 2008). The greatest gains were made by students who followed the more advanced course sequences and had completed at least precalculus.
- The rate at which students completed advanced-level high school mathematics courses had a direct bearing on whether or not they enrolled in a 4-year college within two years of high school graduation. This relationship was especially evident for students who were the first generation in their families to enroll in higher education (Horn & Nunez, 2000).

Transcript data are subject to the same stringent standards of non-disclosure of respondent identities as are all other components of the NCES data sets. In other words, the data may be used only for statistical purposes and may not be disclosed or used in identifiable form for any other purpose, except as required by law (ESRA 2002, 20 U.S.C., § 9573).

Transcript Instructions

There are 4 primary steps for providing data. You will need to access the secure study website at <https://surveys.nces.ed.gov/hsls>. Log in using the study ID and password printed at the bottom of the letter you received from RTI.

NOTE: You will need your study ID and password each time you log in to the website.

1 Complete the School Information page

On this page, you will need to provide or confirm selected information about your school including grading scale and term system. This page is accessible from the Dashboard on the website. If you prefer to provide the information on a paper form, please fill out the one that is enclosed in this packet.

2 Complete the Transcript Data Transmission page

Each student's name and study ID number will be listed on the transcript data transmission page. Please check the box next to each student whose transcript you are sending and select the mode of submission. If you are unable to provide a transcript, please enter the reason in the space provided—for example, "No record of student's attendance" or "Transcript cannot be located." Please print and retain a copy for your records.

NOTE: You must complete the Transcript Data Transmission webpage prior to sending transcript data, so that we may verify receipt of all transcript data submitted. Once you have sent the transcript data, click Submit. This page is accessible from the Dashboard.

3 Transmit Transcript Data

A number of options are available for transmitting transcript data to RTI. Each is described below.

Uploading to the Secure Study Website: Uploading electronic transcript data directly to the secure website is the preferred method for sending transcript data.

Sending Transcript Data as an Encrypted Attachment by Electronic Mail: If you choose to use electronic mail (e-mail) to submit student transcript data, the attachment containing the data will need to be encrypted, using software such as SecureZIP (select the option Use FIPS 140 Mode), to ensure they are transmitted securely. SecureZIP can be downloaded free of charge from the website: <http://www.securezip.com>. Detailed instructions for downloading and using SecureZIP can be accessed from the link "E-mail transcript data as an encrypted attachment." If you choose to use encryption software other than SecureZIP, please contact the Help Desk to ensure that the software complies with our security standards.

Once the attachment is encrypted, send to hsls@rti.org and include the file names and descriptions. If you need assistance with this process, please contact the Help Desk toll-free at 866-253-1063 or via e-mail at hsls@rti.org.

Sending Transcript Data by Secure File Transfer Protocol (sFTP): If you choose to submit transcript data using the sFTP site, please contact the Help Desk to obtain the sFTP site location and your username and password. The Help Desk may be reached toll-free at 1-866-253-1063 or via e-mail at hsls@rti.org. Additional instructions on how to perform the data transfer via sFTP may be accessed from the link "Send transcript data by secure File Transfer Protocol (sFTP)." After you have successfully uploaded your files to the sFTP server, please send an e-mail to hsls@rti.org with the names of the files and their structure.

Sending Transcript Data via the SPEEDE Server: If you are a registered user of the SPEEDE server at the University of Texas at Austin and wish to use it to send your transcripts, please select School Code "RTIIES" with School Name "RTI Intl Educ Studies Div" as the transcript recipient.

Faxing Hard Copy Transcripts: If your school is unable to provide the transcript data electronically via any of the methods previously mentioned, you may fax transcripts to one of our secure fax numbers (XXX-XXX-XXXX or XXX-XXX-XXXX). First, fax the Student Transcript Fax Test Page included in your school packet, with your name, telephone number, and fax number, to ensure that the transfer is working correctly. You should receive a printed confirmation page. Please check the fax confirmation page and verify that the fax number matches one of our secure fax numbers. Once you have done this, please fax the completed Student Transcript Fax Transmittal Sheet that you received in your packet and your students' transcripts to the same number.

Sending Redacted Transcripts via FedEx: If your school is unable to provide the transcript data via any of the other methods, you may send them via FedEx at no cost to you after redacting each student's personally identifiable information and writing his/her study ID on the transcript. Please refer to the website link "Sending redacted transcripts via FedEx" for instructions.

4 Provide Requested Course Catalogs or Course Descriptions

Once transcript data are received, the individual courses reported in the transcript data will be coded using a common classification system, the National Center for Education Statistics' (NCES) Classification of Secondary School Courses (CSCS). Course catalogs (also referred to as course descriptions) are used as a resource in this process. If we need a course catalog from your school, there will be a Catalog Transmittal Sheet in your packet. It includes a list of the catalogs requested and instructions for sending them to RTI. If you do not find a Catalog Transmittal Sheet in your packet, then no catalogs are needed from your school at this time.

PART 99 – FAMILY EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS AND PRIVACY

The authority citation for part continues to read as follows:

Authority: 20 U.S.C. 1232g, unless otherwise noted.

Subpart A—General

§ 99.1 To which educational agencies or institutions do these regulations apply?

(a) Except as otherwise noted in § 99.10, this part applies to an educational agency or institution to which funds have been made available under any program administered by the Secretary, if—

- (1) The educational institution provides educational services or instruction, or both, to students; or
- (2) The educational agency is authorized to direct and control public elementary or secondary, or postsecondary educational institutions.

(b) This part does not apply to an educational agency or institution solely because students attending that agency or institution receive non-monetary benefits under a program referenced in paragraph (a) of this section, if no funds under that program are made available to the agency or institution.

on the contested information in the record or stating why he or she disagrees with the decision of the agency or institution, or both.

(c) If an educational agency or institution places a statement in the education records of a student under paragraph (b)(2) of this section, the agency or institution shall:

(1) Maintain the statement with the contested part of the record for as long as the record is maintained; and

(2) Disclose the statement whenever it discloses the portion of the record to which the statement relates.

(Authority: 20 U.S.C 1232g(a)(2))

§ 99.22 What minimum requirements exist for the conduct of a hearing?

The hearing required by § 99.21 must meet, at a minimum, the following requirements:

(a) The educational agency or institution shall hold the hearing within a reasonable time after it has received the request for the hearing from the parent or eligible student.

(b) The educational agency or institution shall give the parent or eligible student notice of the date, time, and place, reasonably in advance of the hearing.

(c) The hearing may be conducted by any individual, including an official of the educational agency or institution, who does not have a direct interest in the outcome of the hearing.

(d) The educational agency or institution shall give the parent or eligible student a full and fair opportunity to present evidence relevant to the issues raised under § 99.21. The parent or eligible student may, at their own expense, be assisted or represented by one or more individuals of his or her own choice, including an attorney.

(e) The educational agency or institution shall make its decision in writing within a reasonable period of time after the hearing.

(f) The decision must be based solely on the evidence presented at the hearing, and must include a summary of the evidence and the reasons for the decision.

(Authority: 20 U.S.C 1232g(a)(2))

Subpart D—May an Educational Agency or Institution Disclose Personally Identifiable Information From Education Records?

§ 99.30 Under what conditions is prior consent required to disclose information?

(a) The parent or eligible student shall provide a signed and dated written consent before an educational agency or institution discloses personally identifiable information from the student's education records, except as provided in § 99.31.

(b) The written consent must:

(1) Specify the records that may be disclosed;

(2) State the purpose of the disclosure; and

(3) Identify the party or class of parties to whom the disclosure may be made.

(c) When a disclosure is made under paragraph

(a) of this section:

(1) If a parent or eligible student so requests, the educational agency or institution shall provide him or her with a copy of the records disclosed; and

(2) If the parent of a student who is not an eligible student so requests, the agency or institution shall provide the student with a copy of the records disclosed.

(Authority: 20 U.S.C 1232g (b)(1) and (b)(2)(A))

§ 99.31 Under what conditions is prior consent not required to disclose information?

(a) An educational agency or institution may disclose personally identifiable information from an education record of a student without the consent required by § 99.30 if the disclosure meets one or more of the following conditions:

(1) The disclosure is to other school officials, including teachers, within the agency or institution whom the agency or institution has determined to have legitimate educational interests.

(2) The disclosure is, subject to the requirements of § 99.34, to officials of another school, school system, or institution of postsecondary education where the student seeks or intends to enroll.

(3) The disclosure is, subject to the requirements of § 99.35, to authorized representatives of—

(i) The Comptroller General of the United States;

(ii) The Attorney General of the United States;

(iii) The Secretary; or

(iv) State and local educational authorities.

(4)(i) The disclosure is in connection with financial aid for which the student has applied or which the student has received, if the information is necessary for such purposes as to:

(A) Determine eligibility for the aid;

(B) Determine the amount of the aid;

(C) Determine the conditions for the aid; or

(D) Enforce the terms and conditions of the aid.

(ii) As used in paragraph (a)(4)(i) of this section, "financial aid" means a payment of funds provided to an individual (or a payment in kind of tangible or intangible property to the individual) that is conditioned on the individual's attendance at an educational agency or institution.

(Authority: 20 U.S.C 1232g(b)(1)(D))

(5)(i) The disclosure is to State and local officials or authorities to whom this information is specifically—

(A) Allowed to be reported or disclosed pursuant to a State statute adopted before November 19, 1974, if the allowed reporting or disclosure concerns the juvenile justice system and the system's ability to effectively serve the student whose records are released; or

(B) Allowed to be reported or disclosed pursuant to a State statute adopted after November 19, 1974, subject to the requirements of § 99.38.

(ii) Paragraph (a)(5)(1) of this section does not prevent a State from further limiting the number or type of State or local officials to whom disclosures may be made under that paragraph.

(6)(i) The disclosure is to organizations conducting studies for, or on behalf of, educational agencies or institutions to:

A) Develop, validate, or administer predictive tests;

(B) Administer student aid programs; or

(C) Improve instruction.

(ii) The agency or institution may disclose in formation under paragraph (a)(6)(i) of this section only if:

(A) The study is conducted in a manner that does not permit personal identification of parents and students by individuals other than representatives of the organization; and

(B) The information is destroyed when no longer needed for the purposes for which the study was conducted.

(iii) If this Office determines that a third party outside the educational agency or institution to whom information is disclosed under this paragraph (a)(6) violates paragraph (a)(6)(ii)(B) of this section, the educational agency or institution may not allow that third party access to personally identifiable information from education records for at least five years.

(iv) For the purposes of paragraph (a)(6) of this section, the term "organization" includes, but is not limited to, Federal, State, and local agencies, and independent organizations.

(7) The disclosure is to accrediting organizations to carry out their accrediting functions.

(8) The disclosure is to parents, as defined in § 99.3, of a dependent student, as defined in section 152 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

(9)(i) The disclosure is to comply with a judicial order or lawfully issued subpoena.

(ii) The educational agency or institution may disclose information under paragraph (a)(9)(i) of this section only if the agency or institution makes a reasonable effort to notify the parent or eligible student of the order or subpoena in advance of compliance, so that the parent or eligible student may seek protective action, unless the disclosure is in compliance with—

(A) A Federal grand jury subpoena and the court has ordered that the existence or the contents of the subpoena or the information furnished in response to the subpoena not be disclosed; or

(B) Any other subpoena issued for a law enforcement purpose and the court or other issuing agency has ordered that the existence or the contents of the subpoena or the information furnished in response to the subpoena not be disclosed.

(iii) (A) If an educational agency or institution initiates legal action against a parent or student, the educational agency or institution may disclose to the court, without a court order or subpoena, the education records of the student that are relevant for the educational agency or institution to proceed with the legal action as plaintiff.

(B) If a parent or eligible student initiates legal action against an educational agency or institution, the educational agency or institution may disclose to the court, without a court order or subpoena, the student's education records that are relevant for the educational agency or institution to defend itself.

(10) The disclosure is in connection with a health or safety emergency, under the conditions described in § 99.36.

(11) The disclosure is information the educational agency or institution has designated as "directory information," under the conditions described in § 99.37.

(12) The disclosure is to the parent of a student who is not an eligible student or to the student.

(13) The disclosure, subject to the requirements in § 99.39, is to a victim of an alleged perpetrator of a crime of violence or a nonforcible sex offense. The disclosure may only include the final results of the disciplinary proceeding conducted by the institution of postsecondary education with respect to that alleged crime or offense. The institution may disclose the final results of the disciplinary proceeding, regardless of whether the institution concluded a violation was committed.

(14)(i) The disclosure, subject to the requirements in § 99.39, is in connection with a disciplinary proceeding at an institution of postsecondary education. The institution must not disclose the final results of the disciplinary proceeding unless it determines that—

(A) The student is an alleged perpetrator of a crime of violence or nonforcible sex offense; and

(B) With respect to the allegation made against him or her, the student has committed a violation of the institution's rules or policies.

(ii) The institution may not disclose the name of any other student, including a victim or witness, without the prior written consent of the other student.

(iii) This section applies only to disciplinary proceedings in which the final results were reached on or after October 7, 1998.

(15)(i) The disclosure is to a parent of a student at an institution of postsecondary education regarding the student's violation of any Federal, State, or local law, or of any rule or policy of the institution, governing the use or possession of alcohol or a controlled substance if—

(A) The institution determines that the student has committed a disciplinary violation with respect to that use or possession; and

(B) The student is under the age of 21 at the time of the disclosure to the parent.

(ii) Paragraph (a)(15) of this section does not supersede any provision of State law that prohibits an institution of postsecondary education from disclosing information.

(b) Paragraph (a) of this section does not forbid an educational agency or institution from disclosing, nor does it require an educational agency or institution to disclose, personally identifiable information from the education records of a student to any parties under paragraphs (a)(1) through (11), (13), (14), and (15) of this section.

(Authority: 20 U.S.C 1232g(a)(5)(A), (b)(1), (b)(2)(B), (b)(6), (h) and (i))

§ 99.32 What recordkeeping requirements exist concerning requests and disclosures?

(a)(1) An educational agency or institution shall maintain a record of each request for access to and each disclosure of personally identifiable information from the education records of each student.

(2) The agency or institution shall maintain the record with the education records of the student as long as the records are maintained.

(3) For each request or disclosure the record must include:

(i) The parties who have requested or received personally identifiable information from the education records; and

(ii) The legitimate interests the parties had in requesting or obtaining the information.

(b) If an educational agency or institution discloses personally identifiable information from an education record with the understanding authorized under § 99.33(b), the record of the disclosure required under this section must include:

(1) The names of the additional parties to which the receiving party may disclose the information on behalf of the educational agency or institution; and

(2) The legitimate interests under § 99.31 which each of the additional parties has in requesting or obtaining the information.

(c) The following parties may inspect the record relating to each student:

(1) The parent or eligible student.

(2) The school official or his or her assistants who are responsible for the custody of the records.

(3) Those parties authorized in § 99.31(a)(1) and (3) for the purposes of auditing the record-keeping procedures of the educational agency or institution.

(d) Paragraph (a) of this section does not apply if the request was from, or the disclosure was to:

- (1) The parent or eligible student;
- (2) A school official under § 99.31 (a)(1);
- (3) A party with written consent from the parent or eligible student;
- (4) A party seeking directory information; or
- (5) A party seeking or receiving the records as directed by a Federal grand jury or other law enforcement subpoena and the issuing court or other issuing agency has ordered that the existence or the contents of the subpoena or the information furnished in response to the subpoena not be disclosed.

(Approved by the Office of Management and Budget under control number 1880-0508)

(Authority: 20 U.S.C 1232g(b)(1) and (b)(4)(A))

§ 99.33 What limitations apply to the redisclosure of information?

(a)(1) An educational agency or institution may disclose personally identifiable information from an education record only on the condition that the party to whom the information is disclosed will not disclose the information to any other party without the prior consent of the parent or eligible student.

(2) The officers, employees, and agents of a party that receives information under paragraph (a)(1) of this section may use the information, but only for the purposes for which the disclosure was made.

(b) Paragraph (a) of this section does not prevent an educational agency or institution from disclosing personally identifiable information with the understanding that the party receiving the information may make further disclosures of the information on behalf of the educational agency or institution if:

- (1) The disclosures meet the requirements of § 99.31; and
- (2) The educational agency or institution has complied with the requirements of § 99.32(b).

(c) Paragraph (a) of this section does not apply to disclosures made to parents of dependent students under § 99.31(a)(8), to disclosures made pursuant to court orders, lawfully issued subpoenas, or litigation under § 99.31(a)(9), to disclosures of directory information under § 99.31(a)(11), to disclosures made to a parent or student under § 99.31(a)(12), to disclosures made in connection with a disciplinary proceeding under § 99.31(a)(14), or to disclosures made to parents under § 99.31(a)(15).

(d) Except for disclosures under § 99.31(a)(9), (11) and (12), an educational agency or institution shall inform a party to whom disclosure is made of the requirements of this section.

(e) If this Office determines that a third party improperly rediscloses personally identifiable information from education records in violation of § 99.33(a) of this section, the educational agency or institution may not allow that third party access to personally identifiable information from education records for at least five years.

(Authority: 20 U.S.C 1232g(b)(4)(B))

§ 99.34 What conditions apply to disclosure of information to other educational agencies or institutions?

(a) An educational agency or institution that discloses an education record under § 99.31(a) (2) shall:

(1) Make a reasonable attempt to notify the parent or eligible student at the last known address of the parent or eligible student, unless:

(i) The disclosure is initiated by the parent or eligible student; or

(ii) The annual notification of the agency or institution under § 99.7 includes a notice that the agency or institution forwards education records to other agencies or institutions that have requested the records and in which the student seeks or intends to enroll:

(2) Give the parent or eligible student, upon request, a copy of the record that was disclosed; and

(3) Give the parent or eligible student, upon request, an opportunity for a hearing under Subpart C.

(b) An educational agency or institution may disclose an education record of a student in attendance to another educational agency or institution if:

(1) The student is enrolled in or receives services from the other agency or institution; and

(2) The disclosure meets the requirements of paragraph (a) of this section.

(Authority: 20 U.S.C 1232g(b)(1)(B))

§ 99.35 What conditions apply to disclosure of information for Federal or State program purposes?

(a) The officials listed in § 99.31(a)(3) may have access to education records in connection with an audit or evaluation of Federal or State supported education programs, or for the enforcement of or compliance with Federal legal requirements which relate to those programs.

(b) Information that is collected under paragraph (a) of this section must:

(1) Be protected in a manner that does not permit personal identification of individuals by anyone except the officials referred to in paragraph (a) of this section; and

(2) Be destroyed when no longer needed for the purposes listed in paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) Paragraph (b) of this section does not apply if:

(1) The parent or eligible student has given written consent for the disclosure under § 99.30; or

(2) The collection of personally identifiable information is specifically authorized by Federal law.

(Authority: 20 U.S.C 1232g(b)(3))

§ 99.36 What conditions apply to disclosure of information in health and safety emergencies?

(a) An educational agency or institution may disclose personally identifiable information from an education record to appropriate parties in connection with an emergency if knowledge of the information is necessary to protect the health or safety of the student or other individuals.

(b) Nothing in the Act or this part shall prevent an educational agency or institution from—

3. Is any of the information below unavailable at your school and consequently not included on or with the transcripts you are providing? Check off each piece of information that is unavailable.

Please attempt to retrieve any information not routinely included on transcripts at your school from other sources, such as student records, and provide only the requested information by writing it on each student's transcript photocopy or printout or by sending copies of additional documents.

Student-level information:

- _____ Student address
- _____ Participation in specialized programs
- _____ Date student left school (graduation date or final withdrawal date)
- _____ Reason student left school (graduated, transferred, etc.)
- _____ Type of diploma awarded (standard diploma, GED, certificate of attendance, etc.)
- _____ Cumulative GPA
- _____ Standardized test scores for the PSAT, SAT/ACT, AP, and/or SAT subject tests
- _____ Date taken for the PSAT, SAT/ACT, AP, and/or SAT subject tests

Coursetaking histories for grades 9 through 12* including:

- _____ Course title
- _____ Course number
- _____ School name where course was taken
- _____ School year course was taken
- _____ Grade level course was taken
- _____ Term course was taken
- _____ Number of credits earned for each course taken
- _____ Raw course grade/Standardized letter grade received
- _____ Classification of Secondary School Courses (CSCC) code

*If coursetaking histories prior to 9th grade are available, we would be grateful for their inclusion as well. There is keen interest, in particular, in identifying students who have taken algebra or geometry prior to 9th grade.

4. Please specify below how your school calculates Grade Point Average (GPA), including whether all courses are included in the calculation or only academic courses.

5. For 2012-2013, how many credits did a student in this school earn for a course that meets every day for a single class period throughout the school year (or is equivalent to such a course)?

_____ credits.

If this changed during the past four years, please also answer the question for each of the school years below:

2009-2010: _____ credits

2010-2011: _____ credits

2011-2012: _____ credits

6. Please specify below what term system your school uses (e.g., year, semesters, quarters, trimesters, etc.).

7. Please send course catalogs, course descriptions, or equivalent documents for the school years listed below. Place a checkmark next to the school year(s) for which you are sending a course catalog. If you are unable to provide a course catalog, please provide a reason (such as “call Jane Doe in district office at (919) 555-1111”). If these catalogs are not available, please send master teaching schedules, a catalog for the 2011-2012 school year, and/or course listings or similar documents. Dear «studentName» and Parent/Guardian:

We are contacting you at this time to obtain permission to collect «studentName»'s high school transcript. «studentName» was selected to participate in the High School Longitudinal Study of 2009 (HSLs:09), a study that began with a sample of 9th graders in 2009 and included a follow-up in the spring of 2012. Students, parents, and schools participating in HSLs:09 have all been notified in our previous correspondence that we will be collecting transcripts.

Parents of youth under age 18: If you give permission for your son or daughter's transcript to be obtained, please write down his or her name and then sign/date the block in option #1. If for any reason you object to your son or daughter's transcript being obtained, you may simply deny permission by writing down your son or daughter's name and sign/date the block in option #2.

Youth age 18 or older: If you give permission for your transcript to be obtained, please write down your name and then sign/date the block in option #3. If for any reason you object to your transcript being obtained, you may simply deny permission by writing down your name and sign/date the block in option #4.

HSLs:09 is conducted by the National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) of the U.S. Department of Education. The study focuses on understanding how high school experiences affect students' learning and their educational and career choices. The study also explores students' transitions from high school to college, the labor force, and adult roles. Of special interest is coursetaking and career preparation in math and science. Transcript data provide important information to researchers and policymakers about how a student's courses and grades make a difference in subsequent work success and college experiences. The information we will collect from the transcript includes dates of enrollment, grade point average, standardized test scores, and, for each course taken between grades 9 through 12, course number and title, number of credits earned, and grade assigned. We will also collect information about high-school-level courses that were taken prior to 9th grade. Transcripts will be collected under the guidelines of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA). Please note that if the school charges a fee for obtaining the transcript, HSLs:09 will pay the fee.

Participation is voluntary. Any participant may withdraw from the study at any time. There is no penalty if you or your son or daughter decides not to participate or give permission to release high school transcripts. While there are no risks or direct benefits to taking part in the study, results of this study may help develop policies that benefit all children in the future.

NCES is authorized by federal law (20 U.S.C., § 9543) to conduct HSLs. RTI International, an independent nonprofit research organization based in North Carolina, has been contracted by NCES to collect data for this study. Responses and student record information may be used only for statistical purposes and may not be disclosed, or used, in identifiable form for any other purpose, except as required by law (ESRA 2002, 20 U.S.C., § 9573). Data will be combined to produce statistical reports for Congress and others. No individual data (e.g., names or addresses) will be reported.

If you have any questions about HSLs:09 or participation in the survey or transcript collection, please call Jane Griffin at RTI toll-free at 1-XXX-XXX-XXXX between 8:30 AM and 5 PM Eastern time, Monday through Friday. If you have any questions about your rights as a study participant, you can call RTI's Office of Research Protection at 1-866-214-2043 (a toll-free number). Both can be reached at: Research Triangle Institute, P.O. Box 12194, Research Triangle Park, NC 27709.

We thank you in advance for your cooperation in this important research.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Owings, Ph.D.

Transcript Consent Reminder Postcard

High School Longitudinal Study of 2009

A couple of weeks ago we mailed you a letter regarding high school transcript collection as part of the High School Longitudinal Study of 2009. If you have already read the letter and sent back the consent form, thank you very much. If you have not yet had the opportunity to read the letter and complete the consent form, please do so as soon as possible and return it in the postage-paid envelope that was included with that letter. If you did not receive the letter, please let us know so we may send you another one. You may contact us by calling our toll-free number 1-XXX-XXX-XXXX, or e-mailing us at hsls@rti.org. Thank you for your assistance on this important education study.

Dear «RecipientName»:

Recently, we contacted you about the collection of high school transcripts as part of the High School Longitudinal Study of 2009 (HSLs:09). You may recall that HSLs:09 is conducted by the National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) which contracted RTI International (RTI), a not-for-profit research organization, to collect the transcript data. The study focuses on understanding how high school experiences affect students' learning and their educational and career choices and explores students' transitions from high school to college, the labor force, and adult roles. Of special interest is coursetaking and career preparation in math and science. Transcript data provide important, critically valuable information about how a student's courses and grades influence subsequent postsecondary success in work or at college. At this time, we are contacting you to request transcripts for the students at your school who were selected to participate as fall 2009 9th graders. Enclosed in this package are instructions for preparing and transmitting the transcripts. You can access the list of sampled students on the secure study website (see below).

At your request, RTI mailed a letter to HSLs:09 sampled students (and their parents/guardians) who attended your school. The letter asked the students/parents to sign and return a permission form regarding the transcript collection. You can access the list of sampled students on the secure study website (see below). It will indicate the names of HSLs:09 sample members who attended your school and have granted permission to RTI for the release of the student transcript. We ask that you provide transcripts for these students electronically or via fax. We will also accept hard copy transcripts if sent via FedEx and as long as personally identifiable information has been redacted.

Collection of transcript information is on behalf of the Secretary of Education under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA). FERPA allows the release of records to the Secretary of Education or his agents without prior written consent. We have provided a copy of the relevant text from FERPA in this package.

Responses and student record information may be used only for statistical purposes and will not be disclosed, or used, in identifiable form for any other purpose, except as required by law (ESRA 2002, 20 U.S.C., § 9573). Data will be combined to produce statistical reports for Congress and others. No individual data (e.g., names or addresses) will be reported.

If you have any questions about HSLs:09 transcript collection, please call Jane Griffin at RTI toll-free at 1-XXX-XXX-XXXX between 8:30 AM and 5 PM Eastern time, Monday through Friday. We can also be reached via e-mail at hsls@rti.org.

Thank you for your cooperation and timely attention to this matter.

Dear «RecipientName»:

Recently, we contacted you about the collection of high school transcripts as part of the High School Longitudinal Study of 2009 (HSLs:09). You may recall that HSLs:09 is conducted by the National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) of the U.S. Department of Education, which has contracted with RTI International (RTI), a not-for-profit research organization, to collect the transcript data. The study focuses on understanding how high school experiences affect students' learning and their educational and career choices and exploring students' transitions from high school to college, the labor force, and adult roles. Of special interest is coursetaking and career preparation in math and science. Transcript data provide important, critically valuable information about how a student's courses and grades influence postsecondary success in work and at college. At this time, we are contacting you to request transcripts for the students at your school who were selected to participate as fall 2009 9th graders. Enclosed in this package are instructions for preparing and transmitting the transcripts. You can access the list of sampled students on the secure study website (see below).

At your request, RTI mailed a letter to your HSLs:09 sampled students (and their parents/guardians). The letter asked the students/parents to opt out if they do NOT want their transcript data to be released. You can access the list of sampled students on the secure study website (see below). It will indicate the names of HSLs:09 sample members who attended your school and who have not contacted us to opt out of the transcript collection as of the three-week period indicated in our correspondents. We ask that you provide transcripts for these students electronically or via fax. We will also accept hard copy transcripts if sent via FedEx and as long as personally identifiable information has been redacted.

Collection of transcript information is on behalf of the Secretary of Education under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA). FERPA allows the release of records to the Secretary of Education or his agents without prior written consent. We have provided a copy of the relevant text from FERPA in this package.

Responses and student record information may be used only for statistical purposes and will not be disclosed, or used, in identifiable form for any other purpose, except as required by law (ESRA 2002, 20 U.S.C., § 9573). Data will be combined to produce statistical reports for Congress and others. No individual data (e.g., names or addresses) will be reported.

If you have any questions about HSLs:09 transcript collection, please call Jane Griffin at RTI toll-free at 1-XXX-XXX-XXXX between 8:30 AM and 5 PM Eastern time, Monday through Friday. She can also be reached by mail at: Research Triangle Institute, P.O. Box 12194, Research Triangle Park, NC 27709, or by e-mail at hsls@rti.org.

Thank you for your cooperation and timely attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Owings, Ph.D.

Dear «RecipientName»:

We contacted you recently to obtain transcripts for students who attended «schoolname» and are sample members in the High School Longitudinal Study of 2009 (HSLs:09) being conducted the National Center for Education Statistics within the U. S. Department of Education. The data are being collected for NCEs by RTI International. We want to thank you for your efforts in providing those valuable data. We are contacting you again to seek additional transcripts for sample members we learned attended your school from another school's transcript. I am requesting transcripts for these {phase2_num} students. [If only 1 student, then we would say: I am requesting the transcript for one student.]

Included with this letter are instructions for preparing and transmitting transcript data to RTI. You can find a list of your students for whom transcripts are requested, with their dates of birth, at the secure study website listed in the box below; to access the site, log in using the username and password printed at the bottom of this letter. Also available at the website are instructions for obtaining reimbursement for preparing the transcripts, should your school require it. I would appreciate your sending us the requested transcript data by «due_date». Please call 1-XXX-XXX-XXXX or e-mail hsls@rti.org if you have any questions.

Thank you again for your assistance with the HSLs:09 transcript collection.

Sincerely,

Dan Pratt

Transcript Request Reminder E-mail

Dear <administrator_name>,

I am writing to follow up on information that was recently sent to you regarding a request for student transcripts for the High School Longitudinal Study of 2009 (HSLs:09). This Fed Ex package included information about HSLs:09 along with instructions for preparing and transmitting the student transcript(s). HSLs:09 is conducted by the National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) of the U.S. Department of Education, which has contracted with RTI International (RTI), an independent nonprofit research organization, to collect student transcripts for research purposes. Data will be used to provide information that will be used by Congress, researchers, and policymakers to improve the quality of education in America. Transcript data provide important information about how a student's courses and grades make a difference in their subsequent work success and college experiences.

To access the list of students for whom we need transcripts, please go to our study website at: <https://surveys.nces.ed.gov/hsls/>. You will need to enter the following information to access the student information.

Study ID: <12345678>

Password: <password>

Once logged into the secure website, you will be instructed to change the password to something you will remember more easily. You can then locate the list of students by clicking the "View List of Sampled Students" button.

Please submit the requested student transcript(s) by [INSERT DATE].

If you did not receive the packet we sent, you may access the full set of instructions by using the study ID and password listed above to access our website: <https://surveys.nces.ed.gov/hsls/>. If you prefer to receive another packet via FedEx, please call us toll-free at 1-XXX-XXX-XXXX, or e-mail us at hsls@rti.org. Thank you for your assistance with this important education study.

Sincerely,

Dan Pratt
HSLs:09 Project Director

Dear «TranscriptCoordinatorName»:

I am writing to encourage participation of <schoolname> in the High School Longitudinal Study of 2009 (HSL:09). The U.S. Department of Education's National Center for Education Statistics (NCES), is collecting the high school transcripts of sample members who are participating in HSL:09. HSL:09 follows a cohort of students who were 9th graders in high school in 2009-10 and surveys them later to find out about their education, work, and family experiences. Their transcript data will be linked with interview data and other administrative records to create a rich dataset for researchers in education.

HSL:09 transcript data are collected in full compliance with the provisions of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) that allow the release of student records to the Secretary of Education or his agents without prior written consent from students. Let me assure you that very stringent measures are in place to safeguard the privacy of participants. Information on the many secure options available to you for providing transcript data may be found at the secure HSL:09 website: <https://surveys.nces.ed.gov/hsls/>.

NCES has contracted with RTI International (RTI) to collect data for this important study. Your cooperation with RTI is greatly appreciated. For further information or questions, please contact the Help Desk at 1-XXX-XXX-XXXX or hsls@rti.org.

Dear <name>:

Thank you for your ongoing participation in the High School Longitudinal Study (HSLs). As you may recall, HSLs is conducted by the National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) of the U.S. Department of Education (OMB control # 1850-0852). [Your/StudentName's] voluntary participation, and the participation of other young adults like [him/her/you], has helped to make HSLs a great success and has provided valuable data about young adults' experiences in and out of school.

This important research study follows the same set of over 23,000 young adults, as they move from high school to the work force or further schooling, to understand what factors influence their learning and development.

As we prepare for the next phase of HSLs, which will begin in 2015, we are updating our contact information for study participants. Please update [your/StudentName's] contact information and current educational status. The success of this national longitudinal study depends on having the most up-to-date contact information for all of the young adults involved in HSLs.

Please visit our website and use the study ID provided above to complete this information. If you prefer, you may fill out the enclosed address update form and send it back in the return envelope provided or call us at 1-XXX-XXX-XXXX. The update should take approximately 5 minutes to complete. <If panel maintenance incentive: We will send you $<inc-ant> as a token of appreciation for updating your contact information.>

As in prior rounds of HSLs, we will ask [you/StudentName] to complete a questionnaire, and [your/his/her] ongoing participation in HSLs is critically important to the study's success. If you have any questions about HSLs or about updating [your/StudentName's] contact information, please call the HSLs help desk at RTI, toll-free, at 1-XXX-XXX-XXXX.

HSLs is being conducted by the National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) within the U.S. Department of Education, which is authorized by Federal law (20 U.S.C., § 9543) to conduct HSLs. Data are being collected for NCES by RTI International and will be used only for statistical purposes and may not be disclosed or used, in identifiable form for any other purpose except as required by law (ESRA 2002, 20 U.S.C., § 9573). We thank you in advance for your help and greatly appreciate your continued support of this important research!
