

Single Family Acquired Asset Management System (SAMS) Eviction Status

U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development
Office of Housing
Federal Housing Commissioner

Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 30 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. This agency may not collect this information, and you are not required to complete this form, unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number.

This information enables HUD to record and process financial transactions in its automated Single Family Acquired Asset Management System (SAMS) to dispose of acquired single-family properties. HUD reimburses M & M Contractors, closing agents, selling brokers, and trade vendors for their services in maintaining, marketing, and selling HUD homes, and HUD collects funds associated with the sales of these properties. The information enables HUD to create and maintain sound financial management practices and effective internal controls over the property disposition program. A response is required to obtain or maintain a benefit.

Privacy Act Statement. The Department of Housing & Urban Development (HUD) is authorized to collect the information on this form by the U.S. Housing Act of 1937, as amended. The Housing & Community Development Act of 1987, 42 U.S.C. 3543 authorizes HUD to collect Social Security Numbers (SSN). The information is being used to track eviction processing and/or leasehold workout agreements. The SSN is used as a unique identifier. HUD may disclose this information to Federal, State and local agencies when relevant to civil, criminal, or regulatory investigations and prosecutions. It will not be otherwise disclosed or released outside of HUD, except as required and permitted by law. Providing the SSN is mandatory. Failure to provide the information could result in additional holding cost to the Department or an improper eviction.
