

VA may be able to pay you at a higher rate if you identify expenses VA considers allowable. Medical and dental expenses paid by you may be deductible from the income VA counts when determining your benefit entitlement.

In Items 20 and 21 below, identify any medical or dental expenses that you paid for a member of your household (self, spouse, child, etc.) for which you were not reimbursed. Below are examples of expenses you should include, if applicable:

- Hospital expenses
- Doctor's office fees
- Dental fees
- Prescription/non-prescription drug costs
- Vision care costs
- Medical insurance premiums
- Monthly Medicare deduction
- Nursing home costs
- Hearing aid costs
- Dental fees
- Home health service expenses
- Expenses related to transportation to a hospital, doctor, or other medical facility

IMPORTANT NOTES

- Do not include any expenses for which you were reimbursed. If you receive reimbursement after you have filed this claim, promptly notify the VA office handling your claim.
- If you are not sure whether a particular expense can be allowed, furnish a complete description of the purposes of the payment. We will let you know if an expense cannot be allowed.
- You may be asked to verify the amounts you actually paid, so keep all receipts or other documentation of payments for at least 3 years after we make a decision on your medical expense claim. If you are unable to provide documentation of the claimed medical expenses when asked to do so by VA, your benefits may be retroactively reduced or terminated.
- If more space is needed to report expenses, attach a separate sheet of paper with columns corresponding to those on this form. Be sure to write your VA file number on any attachments.
