

Application for Exemption from the Shared Responsibility Payment for Members of Recognized Religious Sects or Divisions

THINGS TO KNOW

Use this application to apply for an exemption from the shared responsibility payment

- Starting in 2014, every person needs to have health coverage or make a payment on their federal income tax return called the “shared responsibility payment.”
- Some people are exempt from making this payment. This application includes one category of exemption. There are other applications for other categories of exemptions. You may apply for certain other categories of exemptions when you file your federal income tax return.
- You don’t need to ask for an exemption if you’re not going to file a federal income tax return because your income is below the filing threshold. If you’re not sure, you may want to ask for an exemption.

Who can use this application?

- Use this application if you and/or anyone in your tax household is a member of an approved religious sect or division which is described in section 1402(g)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code, and an adherent of established tenets or teachings of such sect or division, including conscientious opposition to acceptance of the benefits of any private or public insurance which makes payments in the event of death, disability, old-age, or retirement or makes payments toward the cost of, or provides services for, medical care (including Medicare and Social Security.)
- If you get this exemption, you can keep it for future years without submitting another application unless you turn 21 or leave your religious sect.
- You can use one single application to ask for this exemption for more than one person in your tax household.

What you need to apply

- The name and address of your religious sect.
- Social Security numbers (SSNs), if you have them.
- If you have one, a copy of an approved IRS Form 4029 (“Application for Exemption from Social Security and Medicare Taxes and Waiver of Benefits”).

Why do we ask for this information?

We ask for Social Security numbers and other information to make sure your exemption is counted when you file your federal income tax return. We ask for the name of your religious sect or division to make sure it is on the official list maintained by the Social Security Administration. We’ll keep all the information you give private and secure, as required by law. To view the Privacy Act Statement, go to HealthCare.gov or see instructions.

What happens next?

Send your complete, signed application to the address on page 3. We ask for the name of your religious sect or division to make sure it is on the official list maintained by the Social Security Administration. We’ll follow-up with you within 1–2 weeks and let you know if we need additional information. STEP 2 Tell us about your tax household.

Who do you need to include on this application?

Tell us about each person in the tax household who needs an exemption (don't include dependents who aren't asking for this exemption for themselves.) If you get this exemption, we'll give you an Exemption Certificate Number with your approval letter. Keep this for your records. You'll need to put this number on your federal income tax return at the time you file taxes.

Complete Step 2 for each person in your tax household, except for dependents who aren't asking for this exemption for themselves.

Start with yourself, then add all other adults (whether or not they're requesting this exemption) and any dependents, if you want this exemption for them. Make additional copies of page 2 and attach them for each additional person. You don't need to give a Social Security number (SSN) for members of your tax household who don't need this exemption. Someone asking for an exemption may still be eligible for one even if they don't have an SSN. We'll keep all the information you provide private and secure, as required by law. We'll use personal information only to check if you're eligible for an exemption.

NEED HELP WITH YOUR APPLICATION? Visit HealthCare.gov or call us at 1-800-318-2596. Para obtener una copia de este formulario en Español, llame 1-800-318-2596. STEP 2

If you have more than one person to include, make a copy of this page and complete.

If you're not requesting an exemption for yourself, providing your SSN can be helpful since it can speed up the application process.
