Collection and Use of Personal Information

Sections 201, 223(d)(4), 1612(b)(4) and 1614(a)(3)(D) of the Social Security Act as amended, [42 U.S.C. 401, 423(d)(4), 1382a(b)(4) and 1382c(a)(3)(D)] authorize us to collect this information. We will use the information you provide to help us in determining if your employee or former employee's work activity is/was subsidized or was an unsuccessful work attempt under the Social Security rules. The information you provide on this form is voluntary. However, failure to provide all or part of the requested information may prevent us from making an accurate and timely decision concerning this person's entitlement to benefit payments.

We rarely use the information you provide on this form for the reasons explained above. However, we may use it for the administration and security programs. We may also disclose information to another person or to another agency for approved routine uses, which include but are not limited to the following:

See below for revised Privacy Act and Paperwork
Reduction Act Statements.

1. To enable a third party or an agency to assist Social Security in establishing rights to Social Security benefits or coverage;
2. To comply with Federal laws requiring the release of information from Social Security records to other agencies.
3. To make determinations for eligibility in similar health and income maintenance programs at the Federal, State, and local level; and
4. To facilitate statistical research, audit, or investigative activities necessary to assure the integrity of Social Security programs.

We may also use the information you provide in computer matching programs. Matching programs compare our records with records kept by other Federal, State, or local government agencies. Information from these matching agencies can be used to establish or verify a person's eligibility for Federally-funded or administered benefit programs and for repayment of payments or delinquent debts under these programs.

A complete list of routine uses for this information is available in our Systems of Records Notices entitled, Claims Folder System, 60-0089 and Supplemental Security Income Record and Special Veterans Benefits, 60-0103. The notices, additional information regarding this form, and information regarding our system and programs, are available on-line at www.socialsecurity.gov or at any local Social Security office.
