

Justification for Non-Substantive Change Request

E-Verify Program

The following changes were made with no substantive changes to the information being collected.

- Conforming language changes are made to MOUs; and
- Modification to remove language that has been determined inoperative

See table of changes for reference.