WHAT TO REPORT

The kinds of events that you must report to Social Security are listed below. Check any of the events that apply to you and fill in any other information requested about the event.

FAILURE TO REPORT

If you do not report events as shown on this form, you may not be paid some or all of the benefits due you, or you may be overpaid, in which case, you will have to pay back any benefits you received that were not due you.

Also, if you conceal or fail to disclose a reporting event with an intent to fraudulently obtain benefits either in a greater amount than is due or when no payment is authorized, you may be FINED, IMPRISONED, or both, as provided in section 208 of the Social Security Act.

OTHER USES WHICH MAY BE MADE OF THE INFORMATION ON THIS REPORT

In addition to being used to determine if you are still eligible for U.S. Social Security benefits, this information may be disclosed to another individual or U.S. Government agency in order to:

See Revised Privacy Act Attached

- Assist U.S. Social Security in establishing the right of an individual to Social Security coverage and benefits;
- Facilitate statistical research and audit activities necessary to assure the integrity and improvement of the Social Security Programs; and
- Comply with U.S. Federal laws requiring the exchange of information between U.S. Social Security and another agency (such as the U.S. Department of State).

We may also use the information you give us when we match records by computer. Matching programs compare our record with those of other Federal, State, or local government agencies. Many agencies may use matching programs to find or prove that a person qualifies for benefits paid by the Federal government. The law allows us to do this even if you do not agree to it.

This information collection meets the clearance requirements of 44 U.S.C. § 3507, as amended by section 2 of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. You are not required to answer these questions unless we display a valid Office of Management and Budget control number. We estimate that it will take you about 6 minutes to read the instructions, gather the necessary facts, and answer the questions.
