

Response to Public Comment:

We received one public comment. The comment is an individual's testimonial on the policy of this program. More specifically, the individual expressed how they benefited from this program. We appreciate the comment and note that we will not make any revisions to this collection's burden estimates or requirements as a result of that comment.