DHS Traveler Redress Inquiry Program (DHS TRIP)

 Get e-mail updates when this information changes

The Department of Homeland Security Traveler Redress Inquiry Program (DHS TRIP) is a single point of contact for individuals who have inquiries or seek resolution regarding difficulties they experienced during their travel screening at transportation hubs—like airports and train stations—or crossing U.S. borders, including:

- watch list issues
- screening problems at ports of entry
- situations where travelers believe they have been unfairly or incorrectly delayed, denied boarding or identified for additional screening at our nation's transportation hubs

DHS TRIP is part of an effort by the departments of State and Homeland Security to welcome legitimate travelers while still securing our country from those who want to do us harm.

File a Complaint / Apply for Redress

Go to DHS TRIP

Who Should Use DHS TRIP?

People who have been denied or delayed airline boarding; have been denied or delayed entry into or exit from the U.S. at a port of entry or border crossing; or have been repeatedly referred to additional (secondary) screening can file an inquiry to seek redress.

How does DHS TRIP work?

DHS TRIP routes your redress request to the appropriate office for review and adjudication. When you apply for redress, you will be assigned a record identifier or Redress Control Number.

You should keep your redress control number. You can use it to look up your complaint status online and to book airline tickets after your complaint is resolved.

How is redress information used?

The Department of Homeland Security safeguards the privacy of any personal information that you provide in your inquiry to DHS TRIP. The information that you provide will be used only to process your request for redress. More information on DHS TRIP and your privacy.

When Should You Use DHS TRIP?

DHS TRIP can help you work to resolve travel-related issues when

- You were not able to print a boarding pass from an airline ticketing kiosk or from the Internet
- You were denied or delayed boarding
- A ticket agent "called someone" before handing you a boarding pass
- You were told
 - your fingerprints were incorrect or of poor quality
 - your photo did not match the travel document
 - your personal information was incomplete or inaccurate
 - you are on the "No Fly List"
- You want to
 - amend a traveler record because of an overstay as a result of not submitting the required I-94 when exiting the United States
 - ensure your biometric record created in US-VISIT is removed from Department of Homeland Security systems
- You believe
 - you were unfairly detained during your travel experience or unfairly denied entry into the United States
 - the U.S. government's record of your personal information is inaccurate

Back To Top

When DHS TRIP Does Not Apply

DHS TRIP is not designed to address travel issue related to mishandled bags or poor customer service. See links for travelers for resources to help you address other travel issues.

More About Screening and Watchlists

What is the terrorist watchlist?

The terrorist watchlist is maintained by the Terrorist Screening Center (TSC), which is administered by the FBI, U.S. Department of Justice, in cooperation with the departments of Homeland Security, Defense, State and Treasury, and the Central Intelligence Agency.

Intelligence and law enforcement agencies nominate individuals for the watchlist based on established criteria.

Two subsets of the terrorist watchlist are the "No Fly" list and "Selectee" list:

- The "No Fly" list includes individuals who are prohibited from boarding an aircraft. You are NOT on the No Fly list if you receive a boarding pass.
- The "Selectee" list includes individuals who must undergo additional security screening before being permitted to board an aircraft.

The Transportation Security Administration (TSA) was created in the wake of 9/11 to strengthen the security of the nation's transportation systems while ensuring the freedom of movement for people and commerce. One of the ways TSA secures transportation systems is screening airline passengers against the No Fly and Selectee lists.

Customs and Border Protection also screens passengers against the terrorist watchlist before admitting travelers to the United States. As part of the inspection process, CBP officers must verify the identity of travelers, determine their admissibility into the U.S., and otherwise ensure compliance with U.S. laws, including looking for possible terrorists, weapons, controlled substances, and a wide variety of other prohibited and restricted items.

A traveler may be referred to secondary inspection for reasons unrelated to CBP's priority mission of keeping dangerous goods and dangerous people out of the U.S. For example, clearance difficulties may result from a traveler's name and/or date of birth residing in state or local law enforcement agency databases. CBP does not have the authority to modify such records and must refer these travelers to secondary inspection.

How do I know if I am on a Government Watchlist?

The U.S. government does not reveal whether a particular person is on or not on a watchlist. If the government revealed this information, terrorist organizations would be able to circumvent the watchlist's purpose by determining in advance which of their members were likely to be questioned or detained.

- Read more information on the Terrorist Screening Center.

Many people erroneously believe that they are experiencing a screening delay because they are on a watchlist. In fact, such delays are often caused merely by a name similarity to another person who is on the watchlist. Ninety-nine percent of individuals who apply for redress are not on the terrorist watchlist, but are misidentified as people who are.

DHS TRIP can help resolve inconveniences resulting from name similarities by providing a Redress Control Number that allows systems to prevent such misidentifications from recurring. Go To Step 2

What factors are used to determine if someone is selected for secondary screening?

Many factors are considered to determine whether to select someone for secondary screening, but for security reasons they cannot be disclosed.

Using DHS TRIP

DHS TRIP uses an online form that you complete using your computer and an Internet connection. It takes just a few moments to complete the screens and submit your complaint. You will be asked to submit documentation to complete the redress process. You can submit documents via mail or e-mail. For expedited service, e-mail all requested documents to TRIP@dhs.gov. Submitting documents via mail will result in slower processing.

Click Here to File a Complaint / Apply for Redress

You cannot save this application. Before you begin, have the following information ready: required documents, flight numbers, dates, and any required data that may not be memorized, such as passport number.

Filing a Complaint on Behalf of Someone Else

You can contact DHS TRIP on behalf of another person. Complete the DHS TRIP Authorization to Release Information to Another Person. (PDF, 1 page - 554 KB)

Mailing a Complaint Form

Completing the form online saves processing time and helps prevent data entry errors, so we can respond to you more quickly.

However, if you are unable to complete the online form, you may mail the DHS TRIP Traveler Inquiry Form. (PDF, 4 page - 202 KB). If documents are mailed, it may take 10-15 business days to receive your submission due to federal government mail screening requirements.

When you submit your DHS TRIP Traveler Inquiry Form, the DHS TRIP system automatically assigns you a Redress Control Number. You will be able to use this number to track the status of your inquiry. After your inquiry is completed, you will also be able to use the number when you make an airline reservation.

When you make an airline reservation, provide your redress number when requested by your travel arranger or airline representative, or when prompted by an interactive reservation system. This will enable your airline to determine quickly your identity and reduce the likelihood of mistaken identity during future trips.

If you have misplaced your redress control number, please contact trip@dhs.gov. Provide your full name, date of birth, gender, and city/state of residence. You will receive an e-mail containing

After the Issue is Resolved

DHS TRIP is designed specifically to help travelers improve their travel experience and correct inaccuracies in government records that may contribute to difficulties when traveling. Security procedures and legal concerns mandate that we can neither confirm nor deny any information about you that may be within federal watch lists; we also cannot reveal any law enforcement-sensitive information.

DHS TRIP may not resolve all of your travel-related concerns in the future.

Even after completing the redress process through DHS TRIP, a traveler may be selected for enhanced screening based on a variety of factors, or at random. While it is not the intent of the Department of Homeland Security to subject travelers to delays, the examination process will occasionally inconvenience travelers. The Department strives to ensure that its processes treat travelers fairly and efficiently, as we endeavor to make certain that all individuals travel in a legal and secure manner. In all cases, Homeland Security officers are to conduct interviews and examinations with the utmost professionalism and courtesy.

You Disagree with the Resolution

If you feel that your request for redress was resolved incorrectly, please follow the instructions that you received in your resolution letter.

Paperwork Reduction Act Statement

PAPERWORK REDUCTION ACT STATEMENT OF PUBLIC BURDEN: Through this information collection, DHS is gathering information about you to conduct redress procedures, as an individual who believes he or she has been (1) denied or delayed boarding, (2) denied or delayed entry into or departure from the United States as a port of entry, or (3) identified for additional screening at our Nation's transportation hubs, including airports, seaports, train stations and land borders. The public burden for this collection of information is estimated to be one hour. This is a voluntary collection of information. If you have any comments on the DHS TRIP Smart Form, you may contact DHS TRIP, 601 S. 12th Street, TSA-901, Arlington, VA 20598-6901-4220. An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and persons are not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. The OMB control number assigned to this collection is 1652-0044.

Submit an Application to DHS TRIP

To submit a complete application, you will be required to print and sign a Penalty of Perjury and Privacy Statement presented to you at the end of this application. If you have immediate access to a printer, sign and email or mail the Statement to DHS TRIP along with your required documents. Please have your identity document (e.g. passport, driver's license) information available, as it may be required to complete your DHS TRIP application.

Area(s) of Concern
Please check ALL the scenarios that describe your travel experience (must select at least one):

- I am always subjected to additional screening when going through an airport security checkpoint
- I was denied boarding
- I am unable to print a boarding pass at the airport kiosk or at home
- I am directed to a ticket counter every time I fly
- The airline ticket agent stated that I am on a Federal Government Watch List
- I was detained during my travel experience
- A ticket agent took my identification and called someone before handing me a boarding pass
- I missed my flight while attempting to obtain a boarding pass
- I am repeatedly referred for secondary screening when clearing U.S. Customs and Border Protection
- I was denied entry into the United States
- I am a foreign student or exchange visitor who is unable to travel due to my status
- I was told my fingerprints were incorrect or of poor quality
- I feel my civil rights have been violated because I was discriminated against on the basis of my race, ethnicity, religion, disability, or gender
- I feel my civil rights have been violated because my questioning or treatment during screening was abusive or coercive
- I feel my civil rights have been violated because a search of my person or property violated freedom of speech or press
- I believe my privacy has been violated because a government agent has exposed or inappropriately shared my personal information
- I was given an information sheet by a CBP Officer
- I was told by CBP at a U.S. port of entry that my fingerprints need to be corrected by US-VISIT
- Other travel related issue
