Other change Update OMB 1845-0030 with the award year and date references for the 2013-2014 Award Year FISAP Report and 2015-2016 Application to Participate. There are no changes in the data being collected. This update is part of the annual rollover process of eCampus-Based documents. There are no additional costs to the Federal Government. There is no additional burden to individual respondents. The number of respondents has been adjusted due to increased participation in the program from last year. The total annual hours has also been adjusted to reflect an overall decrease. Although this would be counterintuitive, it is an accurate estimate. The FISAP data collection is composed of six parts. The range of time required to complete the various parts of the form depends on several variables: (1) the number of programs in which respondents are currently participating; (2) whether the respondent is a "first-time" or "continuing" applicant; and (3) the type of institution. So, although the number of respondents increased from 4,258 to 4,304 (+46), the difference in the total annual hours decreased from 85,332 to 85,080 (-252).
