Dear [CITY/TOWN] Area Resident:

I am writing to request your help with the American Community Survey. The Census Bureau conducts this survey each year to give our country an up-to-date picture of how we live - including information about our education, housing, and jobs. Communities across the country rely on information from this survey to decide where important services are needed, including roads, schools, hospitals, and veterans' services.

The Census Bureau would prefer that you answer this survey online using the secure website and User ID provided below. Answering online saves taxpayer money, conserves natural resources, and makes processing the results quicker and more efficient.

Respond at <https://respond.census.gov/acs>
Log in using this User ID: 12345-67890

Your address has been selected to represent your community. I would appreciate you completing this survey for all people living at this address to help identify critical needs in your area. Your response is required by law.

I realize that not everyone is comfortable responding online. If you are unable to complete the survey online, the Census Bureau will send you a paper questionnaire in about three weeks.

The enclosed brochure, "How Your Responses Help America," explains more about why particular questions are included in this survey. If you need help completing the survey or have questions, please call 1-800-354-7271.

Thank you in advance for your prompt response.

Sincerely,

John H. Thompson
Director, U.S. Census Bureau

Will my response be confidential?

The American Community Survey helps determine the annual distribution of more than $400 billion in federal funds to communities nationwide.

Yes. The information you provide will help create a picture of your community, but it cannot be used to identify you. By law (Title 13, U.S. Code, Section 9), all of the information the Census Bureau collects for this survey is completely confidential, and millions of people securely participate in the survey each year. Census Bureau employees are subject to a $250,000 fine and/or up to five years in prison if they disclose any information that could identify you.

Am I required to answer this survey?

Yes. Your response to this survey is required by law (Title 13, U.S. Code, Sections 141, 193, and 221). As a selected representative of your community, you are the voice of your neighbors and peers. To create an accurate picture of your community, it is critical that you respond.

How will the Census Bureau use the information I provide?

Your confidential response will be combined with information from other nearby households to produce a portrait of your community. This combined information is made freely accessible to government leaders, businesses, nonprofit organizations, and the public at large.

Based on the information you provide, you may be asked to participate in other Census Bureau surveys that are voluntary. We may combine your answers with information that you gave to other agencies to enhance the statistical uses of these data. This information will be given the same protection as your survey response.

It is important that we hear from all respondents. If you would rather respond in a different language, please use the following resources:

Dear Resident:

As promised, I am sending an American Community Survey questionnaire to you and others from whom a response has not yet been received. I hope this will make it easier for you to respond.

Those who receive this request are required by a national law (Title 13, United States Code) to complete the American Community Survey. Responses from people in every state provide an understanding of how communities differ with regard to housing, education, transportation, health, and other issues. Your answers assist in identifying local needs such as job training, highway construction, and the building of health care facilities.

I also want to let you know that if you prefer to respond online instead of sending back the paper questionnaire, you can do so by going to <https://respond.census.gov/acs> and using information from the cover of the enclosed questionnaire to log in. Some online respondents may find it helpful to see the questions before starting the online version. If you complete the survey online, please do not send back the paper questionnaire. Answering this survey online saves taxpayer money, but I appreciate receiving your response by whichever method is most convenient for you.

You will see in the questionnaire that questions are asked about your housing and each person living at this address.

If you need help completing this survey or have questions, please call 1-800-354-7271.

I look forward to receiving your response.

Sincerely,

A few days ago, I sent you a request to complete the American Community Survey, which helps communities and businesses throughout the U.S. plan for the future of our country. Local communities depend on information from this important Census Bureau survey to decide where schools, highways, hospitals, and other important services are needed. If you have already responded, I want to thank you. If not, I would really appreciate receiving your response soon.

Respond at <https://respond.census.gov/acs>
Log in using this user ID: 12345-67890

If you are not able to answer online or prefer to answer by mail, the Census Bureau will mail a paper questionnaire to your address in about 10 days.

Your response is critically important to your local community and your country and is required by law (Title 13, United States Code). The survey asks for information about your housing and each person living at this address.

I very much appreciate your help in completing this Census Bureau survey. If you have any questions about the survey, I invite you to call 1-800-354-7271, so a Census Bureau representative can answer them.

How Your Responses Help America

The American Community Survey (ACS) provides vital information that public officials, planners, and entrepreneurs use to assess the past and plan the future. When you respond to the ACS, you are doing your part to help your community plan hospitals, support school lunch programs, improve emergency services, build bridges, inform businesses looking to add jobs and expand to new markets, and more. Respond at <https://respond.census.gov/acs> or fill out the questionnaire today.

What we ask about... How your responses help...

Employment

- Employment
- Unemployment
- Not in labor force
- Weeks and hours worked
- Industry and occupation

- Help governments plan unemployment programs and services.
- Develop programs to boost employment.
- Pinpoint areas of growth for new businesses to locate.

Education

- School enrollment, private vs. public
- Information on students, at all educational levels
- Educational attainment

- Help communities measure how well educational resources are serving their populations.
- Identify the educational and training needs of adults.
- Bridge gaps between educational attainment for workers and educational requirements for employers.

Veterans

- Military service
- Veteran period of service
- VA service-connected disability rating

- Help the government and communities plan for the future health care of veterans.
- Plan and fund job training for veterans.
- Improve the home loan guarantee program for veterans.

Income and Housing Costs

- Income sources
- Living expenses

- Help gauge the need for economic and housing assistance.
- Provide the only source of community data on the population and characteristics of people who live in poverty.
- Provide a measure of housing affordability.

Commuting

- Where people work
- Commuting time to work

- Mode of transportation
- Provide precise data crucial for planning improvements to roads and mass transit.
- Help develop transportation and networks and services.

Disability and Health Insurance

- Person's difficulty with specific daily living tasks
- Health insurance enrollment and type.

- Help communities plan transportation, employment programs, and public service accessibility for people with disabilities.
- Attract businesses that serve people with disabilities.
- Show which groups are at risk for limited health care access and poor health outcomes.

Housing Characteristics

- Plumbing, kitchen facilities, and other housing features
- Housing size and age

- Help identify areas with substandard housing.
- Identify which communities are eligible for housing programs that help people afford decent, safe, and sanitary housing.
- Help communities plan recovery efforts after disasters.

Owners and Renters

- Own vs. rent home
- Amount of monthly rent
- Property value

- Analyze housing affordability and allocate assistance programs.
- Help governments understand local housing market changes and monitor affordability.
- Supply businesses with data to design and market homes.

People and Relationships

- Age
- Sex
- Race
- Hispanic origin
- Relationship to

household members

- Help monitor the well-being and discrimination of people.
- Administer funds and services to people needing assistance.
- Help businesses evaluate local market demands for products and services.

How to respond...

We wrote to you earlier with a request to respond online. We are sending this paper questionnaire to all households that have not yet responded because we realize not everyone can or wants to respond over the Internet. If you would rather complete this survey online, please go to <https://respond.census.gov/acs>

If you need help or have questions about completing this form, please call toll-free 1-800-354-7271. Telephone Device for Deaf (TDD) call toll-free 1-800-582-8330.

¿Necesita ayuda? Llame sin cargo alguno al 1-877-833-5625.

How this survey is done...

Each month we survey several thousand randomly selected addresses in every region of the U.S. to learn how quality of life issues are changing in communities.

The American Community Survey is one of only a few surveys for which all recipients are required to respond. The Census Bureau and its staff are also required by law to protect the confidentiality of responses, and no individual can be identified in the statistics produced from this survey. An explanation of the ACS is available at <http://www.census.gov/acs/www>

Let's get started...

First, please print the name and telephone number of the person who is filling out this form.

Last Name
