Taxpayer Compliance Burden Survey

What is the Taxpayer Compliance Burden Survey?

The purpose of this survey is to provide the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) with accurate estimates of (1) the time spent by you or your spouse (if you filed jointly), family members, friends, or other unpaid volunteers and (2) the money spent by you or your spouse (if you filed jointly) for products, services, or professional assistance in order to resolve an issue with your already-filed federal income tax return, referred to as a post-filing issue.

Please be assured that you will not be asked about specific income or other financial information. All information you provide will be used for research purposes only. Participation is voluntary, but the information you provide will ensure that experiences like yours are represented.

What is post-filing?

If you received a notice from the IRS regarding your 2010 federal income tax return:

Post-filing refers to the time beginning with IRS notification about an issue with your already-filed federal income tax return, ending with the resolution of the issue. Post-filing activities may include interactions with various divisions within the IRS such as Collection, Examination (Audits), and Appeals.

If you amended your 2010 federal income tax return:

Post-filing refers to the time beginning with the filing of your original federal income tax return and ending with the filing of your amended federal income tax return.

Who should complete this survey?

This survey should be completed by you or your spouse (if you filed jointly), but may require help from those who may have assisted you in resolving your 2010 federal income tax return post-filing issue. By completing the survey the IRS can use your responses to help better understand the amount of time and money taxpayers spend resolving post-filing issues.

How long will this survey take?

We expect that this survey will take about 10 to 15 minutes to complete.

Who can I contact with questions or concerns about the survey?

If you have questions about the content of this survey, please contact Dawn Nelson at Westat by phone at 1-888-977-8221 or send an e-mail to TaxpayerBurdenSurveyIRS@westat.com.
