

Table of Changes for Self Check/myE-Verify

Self Check	A Self Check user will be presented with the option to create a myE-Verify account at the end of the Self Check process.
Account Creation	These screens are all new and will facilitate an individual setting up a myE-Verify account.
Login	These screens are all new and will facilitate an individual logging into a myE-Verify account.
Account Management	These screens are all new and will facilitate an individual performing administrative tasks related to his or her account, such as password changes, updating an email or phone number, and updating security questions.
Case History	These screens are all new and will facilitate a user using the Case History feature of his or her myE-Verify account.
Document Expiration Reminders	These screens are all new and will facilitate a user using the Document Expiration Reminders feature of his or her myE-Verify account.
Self Lock	These screens are all new and will facilitate a user using the Self Lock feature of his or her myE-Verify account.
Case Tracker	These screens are all new and will facilitate an user using the Case Tracker feature of his or her myE-Verify account.
Case Tracker (Self Check)	These screens are all new and will facilitate a user using the Case History feature of his or her myE-Verify account if they have a mismatch generated from Self Check.
Case Tracker (E-Verify)	These screens are all new and will facilitate a user using the Case History feature of his or her myE-Verify account if they have a Further Action Notice generated from E-Verify.