TITLE OF INFORMATION COLLECTION: Post-Boot Camp Survey Questions for Community College Innovation Challenge Participants - 2016

PURPOSE: The National Science Foundation’s Office of Legislative and Public Affairs is sponsoring the Community College Innovation Challenge to engage community college students and faculty mentors in STEM research geared to address national grand challenges. This collection will be administered to the attendees of the Community College Innovation Challenge Boot Camp. This Boot Camp was designed to provide a hands-on learning opportunity with a focus on building innovation, entrepreneurship, and strategic communication skills. This collection is intended to establish familiarity and interest in these topics after the Boot Camp programming. This collection is also intended to gauge the satisfaction of the participants with the programming provided.

DESCRIPTION OF RESPONDENTS: Attendees of the Community College Innovation Challenge Boot Camp, which includes Community College students, faculty members and industry partners.
