Web-based Survey
of
County Respondents (CW and TANF)

Public Reporting burden of this collection of information is estimated at 15 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to CDC/ATSDR Reports Clearance Officer, 1600 Clifton Road NW, MS D-74, Atlanta, GA 30333; Attn: PRA (0920-XXXX).

Survey Introduction

In this survey, we will be asking questions about service integration. We define service integration as the coordination of TANF/Colorado Works and child welfare policies and processes that link services across service boundaries for newly identified clients, dual-system clients, or clients with multiple co-occurring needs. Integration can be used to describe a range of activities, such as several agencies providing a service at one location and the creation of shared planning and budgeting. We use the term integration here to describe the activities taking place between TANF/Colorado Works ("welfare") and child welfare agencies or divisions.

Section I

This section asks several questions about the overall relationship between TANF/Colorado Works and Child Welfare in your organization.

1. In your county, which of the following best describes the physical location relationship of your Child Welfare and TANF/Colorado Works programs? (Check all that apply.)
  - They are located in the same building and share physical space.
  - They are located in the same building but do not share physical space (such as located on different floors or separate areas of the building).
  - They are located in different buildings.
  - Our County Department of Human Services has satellite offices in other locations in the county.
  - Other (please describe): _____
2. Has your county worked to develop or implement a plan to integrate TANF/Colorado Works and Child Welfare activities?

7. Does your county have any protocols that require Child Welfare workers to determine if their clients are concurrently in the TANF/Colorado Works system?

Yes

No

8. Does your county have any protocols in place that direct Child Welfare workers to determine if a client has a possible need for TANF/Colorado Works cash assistance and/or employment services?

Yes

No

9. Now, we will be asking a series of questions about the time period from 1995-2014.

On a scale of zero to four (0 = not integrated at all, 4 = highly integrated), how integrated do you consider your county's TANF/Colorado Works and Child Welfare services during the following time period (2010-2014)?

As a reminder, we define integration as the coordination of TANF/Colorado Works and Child Welfare policies and processes that link services across service boundaries for newly identified clients, dual-system clients, or clients with multiple co-occurring needs. Integration can be used to describe a range of activities, such as several agencies providing a service at one location and the creation of shared planning and budgeting. We use the term integration here to describe the activities taking place between TANF/Colorado Works ("welfare") and child welfare agencies or divisions.

Select one number for each year below. You may indicate "Don't know" if you were not working with your county's TANF/Colorado Works or Child Welfare agencies/divisions at the time, or if you do not know.
