Attachment 3a - National Black HIV/AIDS Awareness Day Evaluation Report (NBHAAD)

Introduction

Welcome to the National Black HIV/AIDS Awareness Day Online Evaluation. This evaluation will assist the national planning body in understanding ALL of the events and/or activities that occurred on February 7th. It will also assist the National Black HIV/AIDS Awareness Strategic Leadership Group in understanding how to assist you the event organizer better next year as well as provide some usable guidance and direction to the Strategic Leadership Council. The ten organizations that make up the SLC are: Alliances for Quality Education, Inc.; Balm in Gilead; Centers for Disease Control and Prevention; Healthy Black Communities, Inc.; Jackson State University - Mississippi Urban Research Center; My Brother's Keeper, Inc.; Multi-Cultural Addictions Network, Inc.; National Alliance of State and Territorial AIDS Directors; National Black Alcoholism and Addictions Council; National Black Leadership Commission on AID.

We have divided the evaluation into five sections to assist us in knowing where the greatest accomplishments happened and where more work needs to be done from the national planning perspective.

Thank you in advance for your assistance.

Overall Assessment

As we prepare to close out this year and get up and running for the next, we have just a few more questions to ask you to help us in our planning and structure.

•	Did you use the online planning Toolkit?
•	From your perspective, what can we do from a national perspective to make NBHHAAD more effective/successful?
•	Overall, can you give us three strengths of your NBHAAD event/activity (what really went well)
•	Overall, can you provide us three challenges of planning and executing your NBHAAD event/activity?
