Dear ,

Enclosed is a copy of the National Prisoner Statistics (NPS 1B) form for the 2014 yearend data. I want to thank you for your continued participation in NPS, a core component of the Bureau of Justice Statistics' data collections on prison populations. BJS uses the NPS data to track changes in prison populations nationwide, as well as in the states, territories and Federal Bureau of Prisons. The 2014 collection is the 88th year of continuous data collection in the NPS, a national data collection program authorized by Congress in 1926. Practitioners, policy makers, researchers, and the general public, among others, use the reports and statistics derived from the NPS. The Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968, as amended (42 USC 3732), authorizes collection of these data.

Your participation is voluntary but we need your help to make the NPS data complete and accurate. BJS is committed to disseminating accurate and timely statistics, and we plan to publish the Prisoners in 2014 bulletin in July, 2015 as a final count of prison admissions, releases, and yearend population. For that reason, we request that you complete and submit your form by February 28, 2015. We are particularly concerned with getting the responses to items 1-10 as early in the year as possible; if the HIV/AIDS will take longer to compile, we ask that you contact our data collection agent to provide data in separate submissions. This year, we have changed data collection agents to Abt Associates, Inc., the firm that also collects our National Corrections Reporting Program (NCRP) data. Since many of you are also respondents to that collection, we anticipate that having the data collection agent should reduce the amount of times we need to contact you to request data.

You may submit your completed NPS 1B forms via web, fax, or mail. You can access materials for web submission at <http://abtassociates.com/nps>. Login and password information can be found on the coversheet of the survey, left of the address. Information regarding mail and fax submissions can be found on the cover page of the survey. If you are in need of assistance, please feel free to contact the program manager for NPS, Tom Rich via email at tom_rich@abtassociates.com or by phone at (617) 349-2753.

I also want to alert you to the fact that you will receive separate cover requests to participate in other BJS data collections during the upcoming year. These include Capital Punishment, National Corrections Reporting Program and Deaths in Custody Reporting Program. Without your assistance on each of these, BJS would not be able to provide comprehensive statistics on correctional populations in the U.S.

Thank you for your continued support of BJS' statistical programs. If you need assistance with any matters related to the collection, feel free to contact the NPS program manager, Ann Carson, at Elizabeth.Carson@usdoj.gov or (202) 616-3496.

Sincerely,

William J. Sabol, Ph.D.,
Acting Director, BJS

This year we have included inmates who have Dual Jurisdiction, or those serving RI sentences out of state while serving that state's sentence as well....Q6c. Hispanic is recorded as a race rather than an ethnicity. As a result, we cannot determine whether inmates identifying themselves as Hispanice are white, black, or any other race. Additionally, those identifying themselves as white, black, or any other race may also be Hispanic....Q6f & 6g. Our data system does not capture the race of Native Hawaiin/Other Pacific Islander or if an inmate identifies themself as two or more races....Q7b. We cannot determine parole violators with or without a new sentence. We placed the total for male and female parole violaors in 7b1.Q7f & 7e.
