E-Visa: U.S. Personnel Information 1

The 'Purpose of Trip to the U.S.' / 'Specify' on the Travel page is TREATY INVESTOR (E2). The questions are unanswered.

The screenshot shows the CEAC website interface. At the top, there is a header with the U.S. Department of State logo and navigation links like 'Contact Us', 'Help', and 'Exit'. Below the header, there are tabs for 'COMPLETE', 'PHOTO', 'REVIEW', and 'SIGN'. The main content area is titled 'E-Visa: U.S. Personnel Information 1' and contains several sections for entering employee information. Each section has a title, a description, and two input fields for 'This Year' and 'Next Year' counts. The sections are: 'Nationals of treaty country on E, H, and L visas', 'U.S. Citizens and Legal Permanent Resident (LPR) Employees', and 'Other (Third Country National) Employees'. Each of these sections is further divided into 'Managerial/Executive', 'Specialized/Essential', and 'All other Employees' categories. At the bottom of the main content area, there is a 'Total Employees' section with similar input fields. A 'Calculate Totals' button is located below the total section. On the left side, there is a navigation menu with various categories like 'Getting Started', 'Personal', 'Address and Phone', etc. At the bottom of the page, there are navigation buttons: 'Back: Investment', 'Save', and 'Next: U.S. Personnel 2'. A disclaimer is visible at the very bottom of the page.

- The system will default to null and store null in the database if zero is not entered on the E-Visa: Personnel in the U.S. 1 page.
- The system will provide the Total Employee sums on the E-Visa: Personnel in the U.S. 1 page. The system will default to null and store null in the database if zero is not entered.

Sign and Submit

Help: Navigation Buttons
Click on the buttons above to access previously entered data.

Read the following information carefully before dating, electronically signing and submitting the application.

Your application is now ready to be submitted. Please note that this does not necessarily mean that your application for a nonimmigrant visa is complete, as additional information may be needed after Department of State personnel have reviewed the application.

By clicking "Sign and Submit Application" you are electronically signing the application. You are required to electronically sign your application yourself, unless otherwise exempt by regulation, even if the application has been prepared by someone other than yourself. Your electronic signature certifies that you have read and understood the questions in this application and that your answers are true and correct to the best of your knowledge and belief. The submission of an application containing any false or misleading statements may result in the permanent refusal of a visa or the denial of entry into the United States. All declarations made in this application are unsworn declarations made under penalty of perjury. (28 U.S.C. 1746).

Additionally, by clicking "Sign and Submit Application" you are certifying that you understand that you are required to submit your visa to the United States Immigration Officer at the port where you apply to enter the United States, and that possession of the visa does not entitle you to enter the United States if, upon your arrival, you are found to be inadmissible under U.S. immigration laws. You further understand that your adjustment of status to legal permanent resident is dependent upon marriage to a U.S. citizen and upon meeting all of the requirements of the U.S. Department of Homeland Security. You are certifying that you understand that any willfully false or misleading statement or willful concealment of a material fact made by you within the application may subject you to permanent exclusion from the United States and, if you are admitted to the United States, may subject you to criminal prosecution and/or deportation.

The information that you have provided in your application and other information submitted with your application may be accessible to other government agencies having statutory or other lawful authority to use such information, including for law enforcement and immigration law enforcement purposes. If fingerprints are collected as part of your application process, they may be used for the purpose of comparing them to other fingerprints in the FBI's Next Generation Identification (NGI) fingerprint system or its successor systems (including civil, criminal, and latent fingerprint repositories). The photograph that you provide with your application may be used for employment verification or other U.S. law purposes.

Once you have clicked "Sign and Submit Application" you will be unable to make changes. Electronically sign by clicking the button below after you have reviewed the information in your application and determined that it is correct. After signing the application, click "Next" to continue with the application.

Additionally, by clicking "Sign and Submit Application" you are certifying that you understand that you are required to submit your visa to the United States Immigration Officer at the port where you apply to enter the United States, and that possession of the visa does not entitle you to enter the United States if, upon your arrival, you are found to be inadmissible under U.S. immigration laws. You further understand that your adjustment of status to legal permanent resident is dependent upon marriage to a U.S. citizen and upon meeting all of the requirements of the U.S. Department of Homeland Security. You are certifying that you understand that any willfully false or misleading statement or willful concealment of a material fact made by you within the application may subject you to permanent exclusion from the United States and, if you are admitted to the United States, may subject you to criminal prosecution and/or deportation. You are certifying that you are legally free to marry, and that you intend to marry the U.S. citizen who sponsored your petition within 90 days of your admission into the United States.

The information that you have provided in your application and other information submitted with your application may be accessible to other government agencies having statutory or other lawful authority to use such information, including for law enforcement and immigration law enforcement purposes. If fingerprints are collected as part of your application process, they may be used for the purpose of comparing them to other fingerprints in the FBI's Next Generation Identification (NGI) fingerprint system or its successor systems (including civil, criminal, and latent fingerprint repositories). The photograph that you provide with your application may be used for employment verification or other U.S. law purposes.

Intent and Ability to Marry

Pursuant to the International Marriage Broker Regulation Act of 2005, you are required to receive a copy of an informational pamphlet about immigrating on a marriage-based visa. Please read the pamphlet carefully. We strongly encourage you to print a copy of the pamphlet and keep it with you if your visa is granted and you travel to the United States. IMBRA Pamphlet

I hereby certify that I have received a copy of the IMBRA Pamphlet as part of my application packet.

I hereby certify that I am legally free to marry and intend to marry TEST TEST, a U.S. citizen, within 90 days of my admission into the United States.

If you have further questions, or to find out how to contact the Consular Post, please go to http://bahrain.usembassy.gov/non-immigrant\_visas.html or <http://travel.state.gov>.

NOTE: Unless exempt from an interview, you will be required to sign your application by providing a biometric signature, i.e. your fingerprint before a consular officer. By providing this biometric signature you are certifying under penalty of perjury that you have read and understood the questions in your nonimmigrant visa application and that all statements that appear in your nonimmigrant visa application have been made by you and are true and complete to the best of your knowledge and belief. Furthermore at the time of your interview, you will be required to certify under penalty of perjury that all statements in your application and those made during your interview are true and complete to the best of your knowledge and belief.

You electronically signed your application on 9/26/2013 12:36:15 PM (GMT-05:00). You were required to electronically sign your application yourself, unless otherwise exempt by regulation, even if the application was prepared by someone other than yourself. Your electronic signature certifies that you have read and understood the questions in this application and that your answers are true and correct to the best of your knowledge and belief. The submission of an application containing any false or misleading statements may result in the permanent refusal of a visa or the denial of entry into the United States. All declarations made in this application are unsworn declarations made under penalty of perjury. (28 U.S.C. 1746).

The information that you have provided in your application and other information submitted with your application may be accessible to other government agencies having statutory or other lawful authority to use such information, including for law enforcement and immigration law enforcement purposes. The photograph that you provide with your application may be used for employment verification or other U.S. law purposes.
