

We are submitting this updated version of the instructions for Form 8966 to avoid confusion with taxpayers. This draft can be used as a guideline until final versions are released for public use.

A new request will be submitted when a final version of the document is available.