Instructions for Completing form HUD-52190-A, Declaration of Trust (Development Grant Projects)

Promptly after execution of an ACC, HUD Counsel shall prepare and transfer to the Public Housing Agency (PHA) or Indian Housing Authority (IHA), form HUD-52190-A, Declaration of Trust (Development Grant Projects), which shall cover the individual grant project. The letter transmitting the Declaration of Trust shall instruct the PHA or IHA to complete, execute, and record the Declaration of Trust and provide HUD Counsel with a copy as soon as it has been recorded. (Counsel for the PHA or IHA will be responsible for providing the legal description for the individual grant project if HUD Counsel does not have this information in his/her files.)

The following instructions pertain to the use of the blank spaces in form HUD-52190-A:

- 1. Insert the name of the Public Housing Agency or Indian Housing Authority as it appears in the Development Project Grant Amendment. The term PHA, as used in the Declaration of Trust, also includes IHAs.
- 2. Insert the name of the general governmental unit, indicating whether it is a State, Commonwealth, or Tribe.
- 3. Insert the date of the Annual Contributions Contract which has been amended by addition of the Development Project Grant Amendment.
- 4. Insert the effective date of the Development Project Grant Amendment.
- 5. Insert the names of the political subdivisions in which the housing project covered by the Grant Amendment is located, e.g., City of ______, County of _____, State of _____, or ______ Reservation.
- 6. Insert the approximate total number of units included in the individual grant project.
- 7. Insert the individual grant project number.
- 8. Same as Item 5.
- 9. Insert legal description for the project or of each individual unit comprising the project (e.g., single-family detached or semi-detached units operated in accordance with the Turnkey III, Mutual Help, or other Homeownership Program.)
