SUMMARY OF CHANGES

This revision updates the Assistant Secretary of the Air Force for Manpower, Reserve Affairs, Installations and Environment (SAF/MI) as changed to Assistant Secretary of the Air Force for Manpower and Reserve Affairs (SAF/MR). Addition of requirement for United States Air Force Academy (USAFA) to provide coordination opportunity for Air Force Secretariat and Air Staff on matters pertaining to cadet accession program. It reinforces the Deputy Chief of Staff, Manpower and Personnel (AF/A1) as the principal authority for the implementation and management of all accession programs. Addition of requirement for The Chief of the Air Force Reserve (AF/RE), Director, Air National Guard (NGB/CF), The Air Force Judge Advocate General (AF/JA), The Air Force Surgeon General (AF/SG), and The Air Force Chief of Chaplains (AF/HC) to identify an office of primary responsibility to liaise with AF/A1 on accession matters. Furthermore, the implementation of DoDD 1332.23, Service Academy Disenrollment, is removed from this publication and transferred to AFPD 36-35, United States Air Force Academy.

1. Policy. The policy of the US Air Force is to:

1.1. Establish officer and enlisted accession goals based on guidance and the needs of the Air Force. Goals may be met through a combination of the accession sources to include other services and the Reserve Component. The enlisted accession goal will be based on total non-prior and prior service requirements. This mixture meets the need to sustain proper rank structure to most effectively manage the force. Additionally, it is necessary to access highly qualified individuals with the proper skills to provide field commanders trained and adaptable Airmen without lowering quality nor accessing individuals in overmanned skills to make up for shortfalls in other skill sets.

1.2. Afford all qualified persons equal opportunity to become Air Force members. Furthermore, subject to legal, fiscal, and numerical constraints, access eligible individuals on a gender-neutral basis without regard to race, color, national origin, or religion.

1.3. Adhere to DoD minimum standards of age, citizenship, education, aptitude, physical fitness, dependency status, and moral character. Applicants must meet these minimum standards and must satisfy the requirements for Air Force specific programs for which they are applying. Individuals not meeting standards may be considered for exceptions on individual merit. The Air Force may deny admission to any individual, even if the applicant appears to be qualified, if it is not in the best interest of the Air Force to enlist or grant a commission. The fact that an applicant meets basic qualification standards for a specific accession program does not create a right or entitlement to be selected.

1.4. Provide support to United States Military Entrance Processing Command (USMEPCOM), Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps (JROTC), and Reserve Officer Training Corps (ROTC) programs.

2. Responsibilities:

2.1. The Secretary of the Air Force (SECAF) retains ultimate responsibility for all policies related to the Department of the Air Force.

2.2. SAF/MR serves as an agent of the SECAF within manpower, military and civilian personnel policy and program domains. SAF/MR provides guidance, direction, and oversight for all matters pertaining to the formulation, review, and execution of plans, policies, and programs addressing the accession of Air Force military personnel.

2.3. AF/A1 develops, coordinates, and executes personnel policy and essential procedural guidance for the management of Air Force accession programs to include the distribution and redistribution of all excess allocations.

2.3.1. Air Force Personnel Center (AFPC) develops specific entrance standards and implementation guidance for accession of active duty military personnel. This includes interservice transfer of officer and enlisted personnel and accession of disenrolled US Air Force Academy (USAFA) cadets.

2.3.2. AFPC determines the specific configuration of Armed Services Vocational Aptitude Battery (ASVAB) component scores to establish overall enlisted AF entrance requirements and individual Air Force Specialty Code (AFSC) requirements. IAW DoDI 1304.12, the ASVAB is the only aptitude test battery authorized for determining enlistment eligibility.

2.4. AF/A1 provides guidance detailing support to include funding of Air Force JROTC, Air Force ROTC, the USMEPCOM programs, and the United States Air Force Academy. This guidance is to be consistent with the President's Budget and any Memorandums of Understanding or Agreement.

2.5. AF/HC develops professional HC officer career field entrance standards. These are applied to prospective members contingent upon their meeting initial AF/A1 qualification standards. Additionally, AF/HC manages the chaplain accession programs and identifies an office of primary responsibility to liaise with AF/A1.

2.6. AF/JA develops professional JA officer career field entrance standards. AF/JA applies such professional standards (including designation as judge advocates and award of the 51J AFSC) to prospective judge advocate accessions contingent upon their meeting initial AF/A1 qualification standards applicable to all accessions. Additionally, AF/JA manages and executes the judge advocate recruiting and accession program and identifies an office of primary responsibility to liaise with AF/A1.

2.7. AF/SG develops professional SG officer career field entrance standards. These are applied to prospective members contingent upon their meeting initial AF/A1 qualification standards. Additionally, AF/SG manages the medical officer accession program and identifies an office of primary responsibility to liaise with AF/A1.

2.8. Air Education and Training Command (AETC) develops AETC training program-specific entrance requirements.

2.8.1. Develops and operates the active force enlisted, line officer, medical, and chaplain recruiting programs.

2.8.2. Establishes procedures for accessing members from the Reserve Component or other services upon completion of their term of commitment.

2.8.3. Acquires and uses the Directory of Secondary School Information and individual Criminal History Records to increase the scope of recruiting opportunities and the likelihood of a given recruit's potential for meeting AF enlistment requirements.

2.8.4. Develops and provides specific guidance providing opportunity for recruits to register to vote under the National Voter Registration Act (NVRA).

2.9. US Air Force Academy (USAFA):

2.9.1. USAFA develops specific USAFA cadet entrance standards and operates the USAFA admissions and cadet accession program. Additionally, they are responsible for apprising SAF/MR through AF/A1 and Deputy Assistant Secretary for Force Management Integration (SAF/MRM) of significant matters pertaining to the admissions and cadet accession program.

2.9.2. USAFA establishes graduation and commissioning standards.

2.9.3. USAFA establishes procedures ensuring AFPC notification of any cadet disenrolled from the academy and required to fulfill active duty service commitment.

2.10. AF/RE oversees the Reserve force and identifies an office of primary responsibility to liaise with AF/A1. Additionally, AF/RE develops Air Force Reserve entrance standards for military personnel.
