Farm Arrangement Questionnaire

Section 211 (a)(1) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 411 (a)(1)), as amended, authorizes us to collect this information. We will use the information you provide to determine if the income you received is covered for Social Security purposes, and whether it may affect your eligibility for Social Security benefits.

The information you furnish on this form is voluntary. However, failure to answer the following questions may cause a delay in our decision regarding your benefits.

We rarely use the information you supply for any purpose other than making a determination as to whether your self-employed workers' farm earnings should be included in your Social Security earnings record. However, we may use it for the administration and integrity of Social Security programs. We may also disclose information to another person or to another agency in accordance with approved routine uses, which include but are not limited to the following:

- 1. To enable a third party or an agency to assist Social Security in establishing rights to Social Security benefits and/or coverage;
- 2. To comply with Federal laws requiring the release of information from Social Security records (e.g., to the Government Accountability Office and Department of Veterans' Affairs);
- 3. To make determinations for eligibility in similar health and income maintenance programs at the Federal, State, and local level; and,
- 4. To facilitate statistical research, audit, or investigative activities necessary to assure the integrity and improvement of Social Security programs (e.g., to the Bureau of the Census and private concerns under contract to Social Security).

We may also use the information you provide in computer matching programs. Matching programs compare our records with records kept by other Federal, State, or local government agencies. Information from these matching programs can be used to establish or verify a person's eligibility for Federally-funded or administered benefit programs and for repayment of payments or delinquent debts under these programs.

A complete list of routine uses for this information is available in our Systems of Records Notices entitled, Earnings Record and Self-Employment Income System, 60-0059, and Claims Folder System, 60-0089. These notices, additional information regarding this form, and information regarding our programs and systems, are available on-line at www.socialsecurity.gov or at your local Social Security office.
