Section 2. Background

Because this study is about relationships, we would first like to learn a little more about your romantic relationships.

- Are you currently in a romantic relationship? (If needed, have a boyfriend or girlfriend)
  - IF YES, how long have you been in a relationship with this person?

  - IF NO, have you been in a romantic relationship in the last year?
    - IF YES, how long were you in a relationship with that person?

IF IN A CURRENT RELATIONSHIP FOR AT LEAST THE LAST 3 MONTHS, OR IF NOT IN A CURRENT RELATIONSHIP, BUT HAS BEEN IN A RELATIONSHIP IN THE LAST YEAR THAT LASTED 3 MONTHS OR MORE:

Later in the interview, some questions will refer to the [current boy/girl] that you are/were in a relationship with. So that I can be sure I'm referring to the right person, can you tell me his/her first name? You can also use a nickname or initials.

Section 3. Cognitive Interview Instructions

I work for an organization, Child Trends, and we have been hired to help develop survey questions that can be used to evaluate outcomes for teens who participate in Healthy Marriage and Relationship Education Programs. I will be asking you to complete sections of questions one-by-one. After you complete each section, I will have some follow-up questions. Some of the time, I will ask you what your answer was to a question. Other times, I will ask you why you answered a question the way you did or what a certain word meant to you. This might seem like a test at first, but please remember there are no 'right' or 'wrong' answers. We want to hear your thoughts. Your feedback will help us develop questions that make sense for teen romantic relationships that may be used to see if healthy marriage and relationship education programs are beneficial for teens. If you don't like how a question is worded, please let us know. This will help us write better questions. If you don't understand a question or would like me to repeat a question, just let me know. If we come to a question that makes you feel uncomfortable in any way, just say so, and we'll move on to the next question.

So that we get the most from your help, it is important that you tell me when something in a question does not make sense to you or seems weird to you in any way. Please tell me if:

- a question seems hard to answer,
- the words in the question are hard to understand,
- you have a hard time coming up with an answer,
- the words in the question are not the ones that teens would use,
- you think other teens may not understand,
- you don't have the information to answer the question or if you think other teens would not be able to answer.

Any questions?

Okay, let get started.

Section 4: Healthy Relationship Knowledge, Expectations, and Attitudes

Before we end, I just have a few more questions for you.

1. We started this interview by describing the study and our goals: to make sure questions that may be used in healthy marriage and relationship education (HMRE) programs make sense to teens. Is there anything that you think we should have covered today but didn't?
2. Do you have anything else that you would like to add about the questions we went over today?
3. As I previously mentioned, we may want to use specific quotes from the interviews in describing some of our results. All identifying information would be removed to ensure that the identity of the participants remains anonymous. Now that the interview is complete, I would like to give you the chance to change your mind about giving us permission to use specific quotes from your interviews.
