COMMENT: OMB files this comment in accordance with 5 CFR 1320.11(c). This OMB action is not an approval to conduct or sponsor an information collection under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. This action has no effect on any current approvals. If OMB has assigned this ICR a new OMB Control Number, the OMB Control Number will not appear in the active inventory. For future submissions of this information collection, reference the OMB Control Number provided. In accordance with 5 CFR 1320.11, OMB is filing the following comments on this proposed information collection:

DOJ is reminded that 5 CFR 1320.11 requires it to submit ICRs associated with proposed rules "not later than the day on which the NPRM is published in the Federal Register." DOJ did not do this in this case.

Before submitting the final version of this ICR to OMB for review, DOJ should ensure that its time and cost burden estimates are accurate, consistent in the supporting statement and ROCIS, and that its methodology is clear.

DOJ should ensure that the abstract for the final ICR addresses what the collection is instead of a general description of the rule.

Before submitting a final version of this collection to OMB for review, DOJ should consult its privacy office for any privacy issues raised by this collection.

DOJ should include in the final rule's preamble a summary of the comments it receives in response to the proposed collection of information in the NPRM and a response to those comments, including any changes to the collection because of comments or reasons why comments were not adopted.
